Retailing in Moscow

A group of American dealers was recently allowed to spend a week in Moscow. One of them, Joe McMillan of the Department of Agriculture, gave a long interview to U. S. News and World Report on his return here.

Most of the dealers dealt with the Russians in Russia. He was asked what was in a department store, the various and different things that they had in their stores. It was something you wouldn't believe, and the cheapest one was $125.

Another question was, "What about shoes?" and to this Mrs. McMillan said, "Shoes are the hardest thing to get. They have a kind of cardboard shoe which they wear $20. A decent pair of shoes, which really is made by ordinary shoe-makers, cost $125."

Russian retailing, like Russian farms and agriculture, are government-owned. The state decides what the people shall and what they shall not have and what they shall pay.

Will Arthur Owen Indicted For Murder?

Thursday, May 18, 1933
Will Arthur Owen, negro, who is now serving a 21-year sentence in the state penitentiary, was indicted by the grand jury Tuesday for slaying of Charles Wilson, white man, aged 51, five years ago.

Wilson, who was shot in the back of the head by Owen, was found in a rooming house in the city of Louisville on Monday.

Although heavy rain during the past few weeks has been of great benefit to farmers and grain growers, it has also caused a great deal of damage to the crops.

A heavy hail fell in some sections of the county Monday afternoon following a hard rain. The hail caused little damage, but the rain was so heavy that it caused a great deal of damage to the crops.

A total of 215 families were relieved of their suffering by the relief committee on Monday.

Miss Martha Grayson, secretary of the county court Tuesday afternoon, was indicted by the grand jury for slaying of her husband and second bond for $200.

R. L. Norton, who is now serving a 21-year sentence in the state penitentiary, was indicted by the grand jury Tuesday for slaying of Charles Wilson, white man, aged 51, five years ago.

Surfacing of the Carlisle and Farmington road from Carlisle to Myers Station has been completed and a large number of workmen who have been employed in the highway construction for several months have returned to their homes.

Control Of The Purse

According to Sirhan Anderson of the North American Newspaper Alliance, Comptroller General Warren said, at a closed door hearing of the House and Senate appropriations sub-committees, that Congress "had control of the purse."

He said further that he is appalled by wastefulness of federal appropriations. He said that the government is spending more money than it has in the history of the world. He said that the government is spending more money than it has in the history of the world.
