Veteran County Clerk Announces Candidacy

John F. Sugg has announced his candidacy for the office of County Clerk, a post he has held for five consecutive terms, subject to the Democratic Primary, August 1st, 1953.

He has had more years in public work than any other office holder within the County. Altogether, he has been County Clerk for 32 years. However, these terms are not in consecutive order. He served these terms when first elected to office, and returned to the office of County Clerk in 1934.

He has been elected County Clerk four times without opposition.

The offices he has held in the County in Chronological order are:

Tax Assessor, 1906-09; County Clerk, 1910-1921; County Clerk, 1934 to the present time.

Previous to being elected to a political office, he taught school in Nicholas County for six years at Mt. Pleasant, Barterville, Bastia and Rose Hill.

He received his education at the Ellisville School, the Carlisle City School and the University of Kentucky.

A native of Nicholas County and a lifelong resident, the incumbent County Clerk said in making his announcement that "Shake Rag is my Hometown."

His chief deputy is his wife, Mrs. Wilhelmina Sugg, who has been in the office for more than twelve years, and the other deputy clerk is Miss Nell Craycraft of this City.

A resident of Carlisle, the County Clerk is a member of the Carlisle Methodist Church, a member and Past Master of Dougherty Lodge No. 65. F. & A. M.
