Deaths

Burt S. Brayfield

Burt S. Brayfield, 74, of 315 Oldham avenue, Lexington, died unexpectedly at 11:35 p.m. Wednesday while waiting to go on duty as a night watchman at the Eastern Kentucky District office of the State Highway Department on the Northern Bell Line. Deputy Coroner Price Hisle ruled he died almost instantly of a heart attack.

Brayfield was talking to another night watchman, Ollie B. Mitchell, when he was stricken. He was dead when aid summoned by Mitchell, arrived.

Hisle said Brayfield arrived at the offices about 4:30 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon. He was not scheduled to go on duty until midnight and had spent most of the afternoon and evening reading in the night watchmen's office.

He was talking to Mitchell, who was on duty, when he suddenly slumped on the couch on which he was seated. Mitchell called H. Robert Clayton, building superintendent, and told him Brayfield was sick. When Clayton arrived at the office, Brayfield was dead.

Clayton said Brayfield had complained of being sick for several days and said he had advised him not to work last night. He said the night watchman was scheduled to start a five-day vacation Thursday. He had been under a doctor's care for two years.

Brayfield was born in Carlisle, a son of the late Mark and Anna Brayfield. He was a member of the Carlisle Christian church. He had been a Highway Department employee for four years and previously was employed at Avon.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Cammie Bell Brayfield, and a daughter, Miss Marjorie Brayfield.

The body was taken to Kerr Brothers funeral home.

Services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the funeral home by Dr. Leslie R. Smith. Burial in the Carlisle cemetery.

Bearers were R. J. McGirk, John W. Hutchings, George Thornton, Arthur Nichols, Cliff White and Sloan Prather.

Mrs. M. T. Ruddell

Mrs. Cordelia Hall Ruddell, 79, wife of M. T. Ruddell, died at 5:30 p.m. Friday at her home on East Chestnut street after a four-year illness. She was a member of the Carlisle Christian church.

She was a daughter of the late William H. and Mrs. Ruth Givin Hall of Carlisle.

She also is survived by four stepsons, Marshall Ruddell Carlisle; Roy Ruddell, Lexington; William D. Ruddell, Springfield, Ohio; eight step-grandchildren and five step-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Mathers-Shearer funeral home by the Rev. O. W. Townsend. Burial in Carlisle cemetery.

Pallbearers were J. E. Bradshaw, Oscar Shrout, Clarence Baugus, Allen Hopkins, Dan Wells and Allie Clinkenbeard.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

To acknowledge any other power except God, good, is dishonoring God. Belief in evil can be destroyed in human consciousness, as will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon, entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced."

The following Bible passage will be read from Psalms 66:11: "God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God."

Among the correlative passages the following will be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine mind rightly demands man's entire obedience, affection, and strength. No reservation is made for any lesser loyalty. Obedience to Truth gives man eternal unity with Principle, the error superinduces loss of power."

The Golden Text is from III John 1: 11: "Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God."

CASSIDY

Jimmie Tedder who has spent a year on Korea came home Friday night having been discharged at Fort Knox.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scheffler, Somerset, visited his mother, Mrs. Annie McClanahan and aunt Mrs. Ed Crawford Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crawford and family also spent Sunday with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bretz and family had a number of their relatives Sunday for the day.

Little Miss Doris Grey visited her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dotson near Mt. Sterling.

Mrs. Annie McClanahan was a visitor in Flemingsburg Monday.

Pvt. Billy Letcher, Fort Knox, spent the weekend at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Conway Tedder and Jimmie were in Lexington Monday on business.

Mrs. John Hull is a patient at Nicholas County hospital.

Charles King Jr. spent the weekend with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnie Gray.

We certainly do appreciate the good rain that fell here Sunday. The men are busy stripping tobacco.

A good crowd enjoyed W.S.C.S. Thursday with Mrs. Conway Tedder. The next meeting will be with Mrs. T. H. Vice Dec. 17.

Mrs. Ed Crawford received a painful injury Friday when she fell at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Letcher and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Gillispie and children one night last week.

COOPER SEEKS TO HAVE ALL OF STATE DESIGNATED AS DISASTER AREA

The Department of Agriculture Monday was asked to designate all of Kentucky a drought disaster area.

In submitting his plea, Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky) said the state's farm situation has grown so serious that special help is needed immediately.

Seventy of Kentucky's 120 counties already have been certified for federal aid, making them eligible to purchase feed at reduced prices.

Tobacco has been bringing Mercer county farmers around $3,500,000 a year.

LAFF-A-DAY

"Jane was afraid you might catch her cold, Leslie, so she went out with Stan."

Needy Payments Show Decline

Kentucky spent $3,176,096 on its public assistance program last month, approximately $100,000 under the September total of $3,276,095, the Department of Economic Security reported today. The Department administers the program of Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Needy Blind and Aid to Dependent Children programs.

Aaron Paul, director of the Public Assistance Division, announced that $1,942,200 was distributed in Old Age Assistance grants, compared with $1,940,536 last month. $1,139,364 in Aid to Dependent Children, a drop from the $1,240,190 for September, and $94,535 for Aid to the Needy Blind up $356 over the preceding month's total.

Average checks for needy aged persons last month was $34.93, while the average of $61.82 was spent for dependent children, and the average needy blind recipient drew $39.90.

OUR THANKS

The Central Kentucky Foxhunter's Association wishes to thank the residents of Carlisle and Nicholas County for the kindness shown to the foxhunters during the Field Trials.

Such wonderful hospitality is an incentive for hunters and visitors to return again and again to the grand town of Carlisle.
