A Time For Hospitality

Carlisle, the "Little Town With The Big Heart," will have a chance to exercise its renowned hospitality next week when the Central Kentucky Fostering Association hold their annual field trip here.

Central preparation has been given to each of the host families for individuals and organizations have cooperated splendidly in carrying out their part of the arrangements.

Now it is up to the citizens to make the destination worthwhile while here, thus bringing them to their homes with a good impression of Carlisle and Nicholas County and the hospitality of its residents.

Tax Work Considering

Hopkinsville News ERA

Spending of income, a couple of former Hopkinsville boys, Tom E. Lipscomb and Ray Mose are assisting factors for the commissioner of revenue in an effort to have the tax legislation exempt from inheritance tax all life insurance policies.

At present $20,000 in life insurance is exempted before beneficiaries are named, but Tom and Ray and the other life insurance fellows want it all exempted. That would mean a loss in revenue to the state of about $100,000 a year, but the former local men say the insurance they have sold of all insurance would not absorb the loss.

Of the seven states surrounding Kentucky, only one, Tennessee, has an insurance substitute tax, and that state doesn't start taxing except when the insurance is over $40,000. Records show that per capita insurance carried by Ken-

THE GREATEST BUICK IN 50 GREAT YEARS

Why get you the room and power and comfort and niceties of big-car travel — when you can buy a big, new Buick SPECIAL for just little more than the price of smaller cars? We show our price here for your point — to prove that you can buy this Buick SPECIAL for just a few dollars more than you have to pay for one of the so-called "two-price three's."

Figure what that means — Just a few dollars more for a big heater hood, full of power — Erhardt's bumper — the big heater bumper ever placed in a Buick SPECIAL.

Just a few dollars more for hot and spacious passenger room — and the big, steady handles of Buick's famous Wilbur-Dollar Ride.

Just a few dollars more for Buick's quiet, Buick comfort, Buick luxury, Buick fun.

But do you know what else those few extra dollars get you in this big, broad, beautiful Buick?

Properly managed sheep are one of the most profitable enterprises on Washington county farms, says UK County Agent Fred Young in a report on the results of Halatone Melburn Melburn reports a 100 percent gain from lambs and wool in 1953.

Homeowner Projects Help Solve Problems

Reports from Bourbon county homeowners to Mrs. Jean B. Lapan, UK home agent, indicate that projects for the past year solved many of their problems. For example, homeowners improved the appearance of 800 windows, installed 310 concrete or masonry lamp bases or other containers, and 48000 tons of coal a year.
