A Report On Susie Fay Snapp

Numberous questions have been asked as to when it can grant aid to the child, since she was reported to have been committed to the State of Kentucky for the care and treatment of an incorrigible child. In order to place a child in the home it is necessary that a hearing inquiry be conducted in the presence of the child and the child's children for whom the inquiry is held and advised upon the merits of the judgment rendered in accordance with the provisions of the act.
