KENTUCKIANS
No other Kentucky congressman will take over full committee chairmanship. Noble Gregory, however, moves up to third place on the powerful law-writing committee, the House Ways and Means Committee, and is certain to be chairman of a subcommittee. Frank Clark becomes the fourth ranking man on Judiciary and Finance, will be the boss of a subcommittee, will be the boss of a subcommittee, will be the boss of a subcommittee.

Onions Run Pasture
Thousands in Sweet country met the S. H. Allen farm to see how and why. Thousands of acres of pasture in that country have been planted by onions and garlic. UK County Agent Neve L. Guehl advised that he has been ordered to grow good alfalfa to use for the first season. But the secret of growing good alfalfa is in using potatoes. Potatoes keep alfalfa from getting out of hand.

THE KENTUCKY Seed Improvement Association has announced that the Atlas house seed crop of the Northeast was only about 40 percent of last year's production. Most of the Pacific Coast seed has been sold, so it is expected that the market could not be as good as it was in 1953. It is an opinion that the seed market will be a high one in 1954.
