VOLUME 87 ESTABLISHED 1867 CARLISLE, KY., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1954 PRICE FIVE CENTS NUMBER 6

WHOSE FARM? The owner of the above farm may have a beautiful copy of the original photo free, but he must call at the newspaper and give identification. Last week's photo was identified by nine persons as the farm of James W. Parker, of Carlisle. It is located in Bourbon county. The farm has been in Mr. Parker's family for two generations having been acquired by his father, W. T. Parker in 1875. A general type of farming is followed including the raising of 10 acres of tobacco, wheat, clover, sheep and Hereford cattle. B. A. Ritchie is manager of the farm. The first to correctly name the farm was Mrs. Mack Ritchie. Others were Frank Hanson, Carl Gillispie, Everett Wilson, Walter Miller, Patsy Ritchie, Mrs. Calvin Wills, Ronnie Smith and Mrs. H. H. Daizelle.

Low Nicotine Content Tobacco Theme Of UK Meeting At Cynthiana

Charles Bortner, Tobacco Research Specialist, University of Kentucky will be at Harrison County high school, Cynthiana at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, February 16 to discuss the fertilizer problems in growing less nicotine content tobacco with tobacco growers.

Russell Hunt, University of Kentucky Extension Tobacco Specialist will be at the same place at 9:00 a.m. Thursday, February 18 to discuss the general problems in growing low nicotine content tobacco with tobacco growers.

Burley tobacco growers in the Cynthiana market area are planning a series of meetings in Harrison and adjoining counties to discuss the growing of a low nicotine content burley. The County Extension Services and the Vocational Agricultural teachers are cooperating in making the arrangements for these meetings. All tobacco growers using the Cynthiana tobacco market are invited to attend these meetings. Similar groups from other counties are arranging meetings in their areas.

The problem confronting the whole area is that burley tobacco of low nicotine content is needed in Kentucky for cigarette tobacco mixtures. Burley tobacco use in cigarettes has decreased since 1946 and the canned tobacco has been used in its place. The future of Burley in cigarettes will be jeopardized unless a lower nicotine content tobacco is raised in this area and throughout the Burley Belt.

The trouble is not an individual grower problem. It stands to reason that the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative cannot continue to purchase pool tobacco for which there is a continuing decrease in demand. The trend points to an eventual complete loss of our Burley crop if Kentucky tobacco growers continue to produce high nicotine content tobacco.

Three Red Cross Workers To Attend Meeting Of Group At Lexington Today

Miss Stella Booth, Miss Mary Margaret Hutchings, and Mr. Russell Alexander will attend a meeting of Kentucky chapters of the American Red Cross at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington, Thursday, February 11.

At the luncheon Mr. Richard D. Swigart, national director of Fund Raising will speak on "The Red Cross: The Plus Sign of Civilization." Mr. Swigart will discuss the vital role of the Red Cross in today's critical world. A series of workshops on, "New Ideas in Fund Raising" will precede the luncheon at 10 a.m.

Facts You Should Know

Membership in the Red Cross is open to everyone in the United States, regardless of race, creed, or color. It is a great fellowship of good will to which all are welcome.

When you join the Red Cross, you identify yourself with each individual act of mercy that this great organization performs anywhere in the world. Your time, your talents, your dollars in the Red Cross service possible. In your hands is the measure of what it can do in the year ahead for the stricken and troubled, who call for the help they must have.

There are 100 Red Cross volunteers to every paid Red Cross worker. The President of the Red Cross is a full-time volunteer who receives no salary. Red Cross services are always free and Red Cross blood is made available without charge for the product.

The Red Cross supplies nearly 40 percent of all the blood used for treatment of civilian patients in this country. It is distributed to hospitals and doctors without charge for the product. No civilian or serviceman ever pays the Red Cross for blood or blood products. Most hospitals do charge for the handling and administration of blood, however. Despite the armistice in Korea, the Red Cross must still collect great quantities of blood. The largest part of this blood is required for our day-by day needs for the accident victim, the mother in childbirth, and the surgical patient. The rest is for our national defense needs.

The Nicholas County chapter of the American Red Cross has been fully associated in the blood program for the last two years. A portion of this blood has been distributed to the armed forces and the remainder for Nicholas County residents at the Nicholas County hospital. Mr. Ralph Shearer is chairman of this phase of the program.

The local Red Cross campaign will start February 23 and will end March 9. Answer the call, join and serve. When your neighbor calls, be generous and remember that the Red Cross is as warm as your heart.

Children's Pictures Taken Free Will Be Published In The Mercury

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our Nation, and Community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is the publication of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future 'World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures we have selected a uniform size and quality—we have invited the Woltz Studios of Des Moines, Iowa, Nationally known children's photographers, to take these special pictures for us.

An expert children's photographer for the Studios, with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Friday, Feb. 26. The special studio will be set up at Bourbon Laundry and will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

No Charge To Parents

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafied in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the Studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper and entered in the Contest. It is entirely up to them.

The Mercury simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more the better. So the Mothers and Fathers of the Community in which this paper circulates should remember the date Friday, Feb. 26 at Bourbon Laundry and not fail to take their children to the photographer.

You will be mighty glad, afterwards, if you did, and very, very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have much fun and both Mother and Dad—and the youngsters too—will be very proud to see their pictures in print later. And remember, your child may win one of those wonderful prizes to be awarded.

Hired Man Steals Truck And Corn

The wrong fellow was sent to mill—Charles Burgette, 21, was lodged in the Nicholas county jail Friday to await trial for stealing a pickup truck and 16 bushels of corn belonging to Fred Auxier.

Auxier is ill and hired Burgette to do some work for him and sent him to the mill with the corn and truck Tuesday, February 2.

Burgette was apprehended about 40 miles beyond Pikeville by Earl Hardwick and son and the Kentucky State Police on a warrant issued by Hardwick. He was placed in the Pikeville jail.

Friday Nicholas County Sheriff J. Milton Fryman and Maurice Cameron, deputy went to Pikeville and brought Burgette and the truck to Carlisle.

After trial here Burgett will be returned to Pikeville to face the charges, one for stealing tires from a concrete mixer belonging to a church and for stealing checks from a blind boy.

Soil Conservation District Report

The Nicholas County Soil Conservation District having completed their tenth year of operation, the supervisors of Nicholas County Soil Conservation District, are proud to inform the public of the activities carried out in the county by the District program. The supervisors responsible for this successful program are, namely: Charles T. Whaley, Chairman, W. J. Clark, Vice-Chairman, Frank C. Henry, Secretary-Treasurer, Norwood Auxier and Lovell Hollar.

Nicholas County consists of approximately twelve hundred farms which make up a total of 130,560 acres of farm land. With the assistance of the Soil Conservation Technician, the Nicholas County farmers have developed 100 Initial plans on 12,957 acres, 85 Adjustment plans on 6,941 acres and 2 Basic plans on 110 acres during the past year. To date, the District has a total of 540 plans on 87,188 acres during the past ten years. Summing up the above figures, approximately half of the farmers of the county have started to develop a conservation plan on their farm. The main objective of this plan is to use every acre of land according to its capabilities, and to obtain the most profitable returns.

Every farm plan is based on an inventory of the land known as a soil conservation survey or a land capability map. Approximately 81 of these maps were completed for the Nicholas County Soil Conservation District by a soil scientist during the year.

During the month of April, Charles T. Whaley, Frank C. Henry and the local technician were guests on the Lexington Radio Station WLEX "Town and Country" program. The trio discussed various accomplishments of the work being done in Nicholas County.

Supervisors W. J. Clark, Frank C. Henry and Charles T. Whaley and their wives attended the annual State Soil Conservation Do-

Receives Bronze Star Award

Sergeant First Class Albert D. Hopkins, US* 69411, Infantry United States ny, 224th Infantry Regiment, 49th Infantry Division, distinguished himself by meritorious service in Korea during the period 1 October 1952 to 31 July 1953.

As Assistant Platoon Sergeant, Sergeant Hopkins led numerous combat service to the unit both on the main line of resistance and in reserve areas.

Sergeant Hopkins conducted inspections of men, equipment and weapons to insure that every member of his platoon was ready for immediate action in any emergency, and to insure that each weapon with the enemy his platoon would deliver maximum effectiveness at all times.

Sergeant Hopkins led numerous patrols deep into enemy territory, and was often exposed to direct enemy observation and fire. Many times while on these patrols and engaged in firefights with the enemy Sergeant Hopkins disregarded personal safety to insure success of the mission and to insure that friendly casualties were kept to a minimum.

The cheerful manner in which Sergeant Hopkins performed each of his many tasks earned for him the admiration and respect of everyone with whom he came in contact.

The outstanding devotion to duty displayed by Sergeant Hopkins reflects great credit upon himself and the United States Army. Entered the Federal service from Kentucky.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hopkins.

Mrs. Christine Dale Crawford of Lexington, was at home for the weekend.
