KNOW YOUR RACING

Saliva Test

"Immediately after every race, salve is taken from the winner. It is put into a sealed jet and sent to a laboratory for a chemical analysis for the presence of division. Cost for the analysis of one same per runs as light as $40, to thoroughly in conducted.

Occasionally, a loner that didn't use it "tested" should the Stewards support him as being stimulated.

Orewards suspect him as being stimulated.

A purse is not paid to the winning owner until the salive has been easilyed. This usually takes 48 hours. In case of positive tests, the purse is given to the second horse and the trainer usually suspended for at least 00 classed and days.
