The Deadliest Killer

Every American was horrified at the ghastly death toll of the Korean War. Yet last year alone accidental deaths accounted for three times as many victims as that war. Some 9,000 people died unnecessarily—accidents being the number 1 killer with 34,000—and 34,000,000 were injured. The economic cost to the nation is estimated at more than $9,000,000,000.

Ughs

Between March 1 and 15th, a period when Americans are unusually conscious of the tax burden, we are going to hear a lot about "Cruelty to Animals." This new word of Edman origin is at sounds, but means "I'm Gonna Howl 'n' Yowl." Unnecessary Government Spending. The tax is purely non-productive, and is designed to create a vivid awareness of the fact that taxes now take the staggering total of 22 cents out of each dollar we earn.

Sound Solution

The President's message to Congress on health matters has again focused national attention on the problem of extending voluntary health insurance coverage and still keeping the cost within the means of the average family.

Tid Bits Of Kentucky Folklore

Just lines to listen in when some elderly person is telling a story, especially before the little, intimate details about times and places. Here are some of the "tid bits" that you may hear at the "Second Family Club." This place is the one accurately for other historians as well as our father's memories of using a figure, A. D. 1934. But the back-story story never comes.

Damaged Lawns Need Attention

Many lawns appear in poor condition. Last year's drought and the heavy snow have damaged many lawns. Experts advise that the best way to restore them is to apply fertilizer and water.
