Deaf Mute Adventurer Visits Carlisle On His 6627th Trip

"It is what I have seen but never heard." This simple sentence was the result of a deaf mute's adventure to describe the contents of a fourth coming travel narrative in which he will write of 26 years on wandering in a hospital since 1922, when he was able to resume his travels.

The traveler, Ralph Kenneth Bradford, a 51-year-old deaf mute of Parkersburg, W. Va., spent two days in the Carlisle area before moving on to other parts of Kentucky. He expects to continue touring the country a few more years, each stop in many cities, towns and hamlets throughout Eastern United States.

The fact that he is a deaf mute is only part of the story of his travels. He was born in Parkersburg, Mo., in 1911. He also attended several present government schools in Northampton, Massachusetts.

He is not a difficult man to interview. Mr. Bradford speaks in single questions with speed and ease. He is not a difficult man to interview. Mr. Bradford speaks in single questions with speed and ease. He is not a difficult man to interview.

800 Will Receive Diplomas From UK

Approximately 800 University of Kentucky students will receive degrees at the school's 87th annual commencement program on Friday, June 4, in Memorial Coliseum.

The program will be held at 10:30 a. m. with a final address by a friend in that area.

The Bradford family, including children, amounted to 106 persons, but Ralph is the last living member. He was that none of the other had traveled as he has. Bradford went on his pad of a

Women Save By Tailoring Suits

Barren county homemakers had a busy winter, judging by a report of the achievement. Mrs. Emma W. Byrnes, home demonstration agent, stated that makers club members have continued to use the home sewing program which she started in 1952. They estimated that in 1953-54, the past season they have saved $1,464 by making 60 coats and suits, and making 1,220 other garments, and 17 hats.
