Musketeers Complete Season Lose Seven From Squad

By W. E. Woodall

Completing the 1954 football season Friday night, the Carlisle Musketeers made the hosts, Bulldogs of Cynthiana high school, work for a 13-6 victory. Seven Carlisle seniors played their final game for the green and white. They were Jack Conley, Larry Cameron, Donnie Dampier, Jackie Shepherd, backs; Jackie Wells, Billy Vanlandingham, ends; Kenneth Booth, guard.

During the season Carlisle won two, lost four, and tied one game. The Musketeers defeated Paris 26-19, Stanford 18-14, tied Elkhorn 7-7, were defeated by Lancaster 19-7, Nicholasville 26-6, Georgetown 44-0, Cynthiana 13-6.

Four scoring category Donnie Dampier one of the double stripe seven time. Larry Cameron twice, and Billy Wells twice. Opponents scored 142 points to the Musketeers 70. Thirty-three of 60 men on the squad during the season by the Musketeers were scored in the first two games.

First Quarter

In the game at Cynthiana Friday night the first quarter went scoreless, with the Bulldogs making the deepest penetration to the Musketeer 15 yard line in the first quarter.

The first score of the till came in the opening minutes of the second quarter. As the quarter began Cynthiana had the ball on the local 18 to Wayne Hill, Bulldog back, on the Carlisle 40, where he was downed by Conley and Logan Hill, Fetx, and Ravenscraft. Cynthiana then drove to the goal line on the Musketeer line. Hill went to the nine. Trying another pass, Fetx found Hill standing open in the end zone and laid the pigskin in his hands for a Cynthiana score. Barnett's attempted kick for the point went wide of the goal post. Neither team threatened during the remaining minutes of the half.

Cynthiana Scores

During the waning minutes of the third quarter, Cynthiana drove the Musketeer four yard line, where they failed to make a first down as the Carlisle line held. On the first play from scrimage, the Musketeers fumbled and Cynthiana recovered on the one yard line. The Bulldog's Hill went over standing up on the first try and McKee kicked the point to finish the Cynthiana scoring for the night.

The Musketeers only score came in the first minutes of the last quarter. McKee, kicked for the Bulldogs after the touch-down, booted the ball to Dampier on the Carlisle 25 who came back to the 40. But the Carlisle crew was unable to advance further than three at a time where Gilles punted to Cynthiana's 20.

Recovered Fumble

The Muskies got a break as Logan recovered a Bulldog fumble on the opposition 30, during the first Cynthiana attempts. Shepherd went for four around right end to the 26. Cameron moved over right tackle to the 13. Dampier made it to the ten. Carrying again, Cameron went across the seven Carlisle received another of the many penalties inflicted against them during the night, this time 15 Cynthiana recovered a Musketeer fumble on their 27 for a loss of eight yards when Linda Carlisle, Bulldog end, got on the one-half yard line. Moving through the center of the Dampier scored the touchdown. The extra point failed to connect.

Dampier was unable to move effectively during the remaining playing time.

Nicholas County High School News

We, the Senior Class, want to thank each merchant for his loyal support to our class by sponsoring an ad in our year book.

The staff for our annual, "The Nicholas Countian," was elected Monday, October 25. It is as follows.

The sixth week of school has been highly interrupted it by the examinations we were given. Report cards will be received Friday.

We welcome to our school another freshman student, J. D. Clay, who has been attending school in Ohio. Also welcome back Ned Jennings, a Sophomore and member of basketball team.

Last Thursday evening the F.F.A. entertained the F.H.A. with a weiner roast at the farm. Other guests were Mr. Stoden, Miss Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Sandidge and family, Miss Taylor, Miss Antle, Miss Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. Finnell, and Mr. Pumphrey.

On Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of each week we hear "footfoot", "bang-bang," and "Boom-boom." That is band practice in full swing. We are really proud to have a band this year. We now have around sixty students enrolled and a possibility of a few for the second semester.

Saturday, October 29, a bus load of students, made up of the band, cheerleaders, and the ball team will attend the Kentucky-Villanova football game at U. of K.

The cheerleaders will attend a discussion, "Better Sportsmanship In High School Athletics," an instruction period by college cheerleaders. Preceding the game, the cheerleaders, dressed in uniform will meet the band, and together, they will parade into the stadium. During this time, the other students will see a band concert by U. of K's "Marching 100," a college movie, concert by U. of K's Concert Band, tour of the campus and the game at 2:00 p.m. Patsy Asbury, reporter.

Loses Three Fingertips

Sterling Saunders, 38, of 135 Virginia avenue, Paris, formerly of Carlisle, lost the tips of three fingers on his left hand while working in his carpenter shop Thursday.

Saunders was working in the shop with several other persons and did not notice that the planing machine was running when he reached for a board lying near it. The third, fourth and fifth fingertips were caught in the machinee

He was taken to the Bourbon County hospital for treatment and later dismissed.

Four Students Killed In Crash

Four young Middle Tennesseans, two of them college students, were killed Friday when their automobile plunged down a 50-foot embankment near Bluff City, Tenn.

The dead were identified as William Gentry Pate, 20, and Beverly Bills, 21, both of Murfreesboro; Miss Sue Ann Durham, 20, Lafayette, daughter of Charles Durham, and Miss Judy Joyce Stegall, 20 Lewisburg.

Miss Durham and Pate were juniors at Middle Tennessee State College in Murfreesboro, and Bills was a former student.

(Miss Durham is the granddaughter of Mrs. Susan Durham, Tilton, Ga., former manager of the Lexington, Ky., YWCA cafeterial.)

Officials said they understood the four were en route to Washington to visit relatives of Miss Stegall and planned to return in a few days.

A spokesman at the college said both students had been excused at the request of relatives to make the trip to Washington to visit Miss Mary Margaret Stegall, sister of one of the victims.
