

Gasoline And Coffee Are Good Mixers For Safe Holiday Driving

Gasoline and coffee are good mixers for safe and sane holiday driving. Herbert J. Clay, executive secretary of the Kentucky Petroleum Industries Committee, said today, January 1, is the safe driving day for the year. He said that the Kentucky Petroleum Industries Association, Lexington, who asked motorists to "make safe" for the one for the road" during the holiday New Year's week.

Wiring Is Headache on Farm . . . Here Are Basic Recommendations

By IBA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau
The farmer should have his electrical wiring checked by a professional electrician before he begins to use his new electrical equipment. The electrician should check the wiring for safety and efficiency, and also check the grounding of the electrical system.

At least 14 have honored Washington, from early pro-life through the 1940s. The first was George Washington, the first president of the United States. He was born on February 22, 1732, and died on September 11, 1799.

JUST CHECKING—New Year's resolutions should be made on a piece of paper. Write down your resolutions and put them in a safe place. This way you can refer to them often and be reminded of your goals.

Famed 3¢ Stamps Facing Oblivion

The 3-cent stamp may soon be out of use as postage is increased in the American's every-day life. The Post Office Department has announced that it will be phasing out the 3-cent stamp in favor of a new 4-cent stamp.

First Appeared in 1851
The first 3-cent stamp appeared in 1851. It was a green stamp with a portrait of George Washington.

Social Security Law Changes

The 1954 Amendments changed the Social Security Law with respect to those persons who are aged 62 or 63 months. Employment with an employer is no longer required for one on one claimant. It is now possible to receive Social Security benefits if one has worked for one employer for a period of 10 years.
