Any Heritage Can Be Lost

The more political intrigues seem to cloud the picture, the more the very essence of the present Republican Administration is being eroded by continuing appropriations.

As a member of Congress more concerned about the welfare of our nation than the health of the entire Federal income tax, it is not surprising that he has been elected to the Senate by the voters of his own state.

When the House and Senate report on the following session to a representative cross-section of the nation's voters.

Suppose the election for president were being held today. If Dwight Eisenhower were the Republican candidate and Adlai Stevenson were the Democratic candidate, which party would you like to see win—the Republican or the Democratic Party?

The results:

NATIONWIDE
Eisenhower 54 1/2
Stevenson 44 1/2

Today's results have exceeded the hopes of those who believe in the American system with its ultimate trust in communism.

Why should we believe in the American system? It is the only system that has ever produced a government that is free and just. It is the only system that has ever produced a government that is free and just. It is the only system that has ever produced a government that is free and just.

Ike Poll Slightly Bigger Vote Today Again Stevenson Than He Did In 1952

BY KENNETH PINK, DIRECTOR, PULSE RESEARCH SERVICE

Pulse Research Service's presidential election poll was held today between the 1952 candidates, President Eisenhower would poll a slightly bigger vote against Adlai Stevenson than he did in November, 1952, judging from the results of the latest United States Poll "trial heat" election.

As of today, President Eisenhower would poll 56 1/2 per cent of the electorate vote as the likely winner, while former Governor Stevenson would receive 43 1/2 per cent.

In the 1952 nationwide presidential election, Eisenhower received 55.8 per cent; Stevenson, 44.4 per cent of the electorate vote.

In other words, if the present election...

Car Crashes Through Brick Wall; Head on Collision on Main Street

Thursday, May 9, 1955

A one Ford V-8 sedan belonging to the late Tammie, of Elizaville, Thursday morning, dived over the side of the garage and landed on all four wheels without sustaining any injury to the car or its occupant.

One of the heaviest cars in the state last week Thursday and Friday night, a Ford V-8 sedan, was involved in a head-on collision with a brick wall on Main Street in Elizaville, Ky., Thursday night.

The car, owned by the late Tammie, was driven by Mrs. Tammie, who was at the wheel at the time of the crash. The car was driven into the brick wall and overturned.

The driver was not injured. The car was damaged.

Tid Bits of Kentucky Folklore

By Dr. Gordon Wilson

WANGING FAMILY OF THE CUMBERLANDS

It is always a great pleasure to read the true picture of folk life. Recently it has become almost a fact to make our folk collections, and the more we know of the life of our native state, the more we are convinced that we have never known our own people as well as we do now.

The report recommends more study of the low income groups which is indeed desirable that it is not desirable provided that it is not done in a way that will do any harm to the people.
