Take the Trouble To Vote

The ticket the Democrats present this year is certainly the choice of the party. Let's hope the Democrats of Nicholas County shall vote as they should. History is numbered in those not taking the trouble to vote.

Be sure you vote November 8!

Majority Of Nation's Adult Citizens Opposed To Sharing Defense Debt With Russia

By KENNETH FINE, Director, Princeton Research Service

Princeton, New Jersey—How do rank and file citizens across the nation feel about the United States and Russia exchanging information about defense plants and military bases? A United States Poll survey just completed shows that a majority of all those questioned say they disapprove of having the United States and Russia exchange information about defense plants and military bases.

Historical Note

In fact, the name historical note is a very interesting one. It has been 119 years since the first Presidential election. Some one with a flair for history, and a good deal of imagination, has written a book which tells the story of the first Presidential election.

A LITTLE YAPPING'

By Nellie Cooper
My every thought (about) for the past few weeks has included something that happened while I was in Covington. After more than one week's rest, I feel that I am now in a position to write about it.

Older Than Hot! Lemur!

It was not long ago that the old Lemur hotel (Herbaw, near 1882) had opened completely. The "Old World Here" has been built in 1880. I have been told that the Carlisle Mill is over seven miles, or thereabouts. There is not much to it, but I do know the present owner.
