Mrs. James W. Brad, Carlisle, Ky., was the Modern Furniture Company gift certificate winner for her correct identification of the mystery farm pictured above.

The 97-acre farm located on the Island Chapel road in the property of Noble, Kentucky, Mrs. Brad, a former resident of the Nicholas County Farm Bureau. The home has been renovated and the barn has had a milking parlor added, making it conform with Grade A milk standards.

Previous to the farm's purchase by Mrs. Brad, the farm was known as the Leslie Henry Brown farm and was purchased 11 years ago.

The Gilligan home has been owned by Mrs. Brad since 1934. Mrs. Brad is a former resident of the Nicholas County Farm Bureau.

Other persons correctly identifying the farm were Mrs. Stanley H. Brown, Mrs. Edna Duffell, Mrs. Jack Alexander, Mrs. E. R. Price and Mrs. Mary Singleton.

Coney Island to open 70th season April 28

New tests of all favorites will give the crowd of visitors to Coney Island, Cincinnati, when the event begins in 70th season on Saturday, April 26, according to Edward L. Schott, Coney Island president and general manager.

The park will be open the weekends of April 25-26, May 1-6 and May 12-13, with the operations scheduled to begin on May 19. Free fireworks displays will be featured every night of the three weekends, with showings at 10 p. m.
