MAN ON THE STREET

Public Says That Lives Can Be Saved Over Christmas Holiday If Every One Drives Carefully And Police Enforce Laws

By Kenneth Fish, Director

Princeton, N. Jersey—It is estimated that at least 500 people will be killed on the nation's highways during the Christmas holiday period from Saturday, December 23, to Wednesday morning, December 26, 1956.

And during the year 1957, it is further estimated that some 15,000 people will be killed on the roads and highways across the U. S. A. and some 50,000 people seriously injured.

Senator Eisenhower pointed up the enormity of the problem when he stated that more people have been killed in auto accidents during the past 30 years than have been killed in all the wars that the nation has participated in since its founding.

Unquestionably, the reduction of auto accidents is one of the top problems facing the nation.

Princeton, N. Jersey—Following that the auto accident toll in the nation will reach about 500 over what would be the safe holiday—Christmas—weekend, it is the responsibility of every citizen, and every driver, to do what he can to prevent this awful waste of human life.

In talking to people in all walks of life on ways to reduce the toll auto accidents on the nation's highways, MAN ON THE STREET finds three suggestions especially worthy of the nation's attention.

1. People should drive more carefully. Always keep car under control, watch the other driver at all times, never take chances.

2. Stricter law enforcement: Police should crack down on offenders, enforce penalties, stop talking tickets.

3. Cut down speeding: Excessive speeds, lack of control, speeders drive down the road with the most popular suggestion for reducing auto accidents, judging from the frequency of mentions are:

1. Concentrate on driving. Drive free of distractions. Don't let your mind wander. Don't drink and drive at any time.

2. Need more traffic and highway police.

Silk stockings a mark of distinction at turn of the century in Fidelity

By Dr. Gordon Wilson

When I tried recently to tell a friend that she was a silk stocker, she looked at me as if I had just said that she was a silk stocker.

It is said to be good to know one's own silk. Here I am, a silk stocker, and I am writing in English words about silk stockings.
