Sowing a crop of telephone convenience...

Many new, improved construction methods are helping Southern Bell to extend telephone service in rural areas. For example, the cable plow shown above can lay 30 miles of cable a week to a maximum depth of 30 inches, leaving no unsightly trenches.

Also, a small new-type cable which carries several telephone lines has been developed. Of light, inexpensive construction, it is strung right along side wires on pole lines.

These new and improved techniques helped make possible the installation of about 86,000 new rural phones in 1955 in our nine-state area at a total cost of 16 million dollars. And there's still a big job to do. We'll spend over 18 million dollars in 1956 to bring even more telephones to farm folks who want and need them.

The cut from which the Santa Claus is printed at Christmas time each year in The Mercury has received a bit of recognition. Mr. Kenneth Metcalf, librarian of the Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, Michigan has asked us for information and age of the cut. The Museum has a Children's Book Exhibit devoted to the pictorial representation of Santa Claus in America, and they want to include a copy of our Santa. Needless to say we were happy to send all the information we could find.

We were proud of the fact that the copper electrotype from which the picture is printed has been used at Christmas in The Mercury for more than 75 years.

The Nicholas County Utopia Club is sponsoring a youth party for the County 4-H Teenagers and Utopia Club members at the Armory on Thursday night, Jan. 19, beginning at 7:00 p.m., according to Ewell Chinkenbeard, Utopia Club president. Mr. Clinkenbeard said that the local club is interested in expanding the youth program in all communities over the county and is inviting all persons interested in becoming a 4-H or Utopia Club member and all club leaders to the program.

The local Utopia Club was rated as the second best club in Kentucky last year. With the effort of a few more members, our County could have the best club in Kentucky and receive the benefits of such a rating, the president concluded.
