The greatest number

For the greatest good of the greatest number... The old democratic catch phrase takes on new meaning as time runs out for a Republican administration that has discriminated against the small businessman, the farmer and the intelligence of every voter with tales of misleading propaganda such as the inference that the war in Korea ended only because Eisenhower visited Korea when a schoolboy knew that the Korean situation ended after troops of the United Nations stopped the Communists in their tracks. Soldiers, not politicians, ended the war.

Nearly 90 percent of the relief during the Republican administration went to corporations and the wealthy. The rest of the 42 percent of all Americans—put only nine percent. The average person taking pay increased only eight percent, while farm income has fallen some 20 percent.

Eisenhower-Nixon Team Leads Head Over Stevenson-Kefauver Team

By Kenneth Fish, Director, Princeton Research Service
Princeton, New Jersey—If the Presidential Election were being held today, the GOP team, Eisenhower and Nixon, would win over the Democratic Stevenson-Kefauver team. This is the way MAN ON THE STREET sees it at this time.

Eisenhower-Nixon, 54%
Stevenson-Kefauver, 44%
In the 1952 nationwide Presidential election, Eisenhower received 54.4 per cent of the major party vote. Stevenson, 44.6 per cent.

Nicholas man drowns in Licking river; light and power service is restored

Thursday, October 29, 1956
Flood rains, Sunday, October 29, 1956, in Licking River Sunday afternoon, 1956, caused the water to rise to a level which was not expected. The accident occurred near the Blue Rock State Park in Nicholas County. The body of the man recovered near the farm of Mr. A. S. Simpson by Mr. Simpson's son, Oct. 31.

"I Said, Do You Feel a Draft?"

A LITTLE YAPPIN'

By Nellie Crump
With the Presidential election just one week away, we might as well get the word out of our mouths while it is still in our hands. I looked at John and John looked at me.

Take the first letter of each word in the line above and you have a little word, but it's not a word you would want to see in your dictionary.
