Questions for smear experts

In the arsenal of dirty politics used by many Republican campaigners, the war smear has replaced the Communist smear as the mainstay.

The war smear is the charge that, since America's first 200,000,000 years were fought under Democratic Presidents, the Democratic Party is the party of war.

The implication is that if Adlai Stevenson is elected President, war will come again.

President Eisenhower, in his press conference of Sept. 28, 1956, said that the Democratic Party is the party of peace.

It is interesting to note that the Democratic Party is the party of peace in the eyes of the Republican Party.

It's always been a Democrat, my family's Democrat, I believe in what the Democrats stand for as variations of the I'm a Democrat these people mention when asked why they voted for the Stevenson-Kaufman ticket.

Next, to I'm a Democrat is that the Democrats are more for labor. Many voters feel and say that the Democrats are more for the workman; that the Democratic Party is the party of the workman.

I don't like Nixon. I am opposed to Nixon, and I don't like Nixon is another theme that voters mention frequently as the reason why they would vote for the Democratic Party.

Another sizable group that better qualified than you are to know is the labor union. The labor union is the backbone of the Democratic Party.

MAN ON THE STREET

I'm a Democrat; Democrats More For Labor; Don't Like a Nixon; And Ike's Health Check Reasons Given For Voting For Adlai

By Kenneth Fish, Director, Princeton Research Service.

Princeton, New Jersey—What reasons do those who say they would vote for the Stevenson-Kaufman ticket give for doing so?

This is the way MAN ON THE STREET hears it:

I'm a Democrat gets top mention. That

Kentucky has no more enthusiastic supporter of the Democratic party than Governor Chandler, whose brilliant record of accomplishment will be well remembered by the people of this state.

A LITTLE YAPP

By Nellie Crump
