A matter of thrift

Close your eyes to all the fanfare for the proposed 100-million-dollar highway bond issue and you will have a clear logical view leading for its passage of the bill.

To save for use on Kentucky roads the thousands of dollars Kentuckyans are spending in new federal taxes on gasoline, oil, tires and accessories, the Commonwealth's voters must approve the bond proposal Nov. 6.

Leaves were imposed by Congress this year to finance the new federal highway program. Proceeds will be used only to match money spent by States on certain roads within their boundaries.

The bond plan was designed to furnish Kentucky's share of the matching money. Unless these funds are forthcoming, the bond plan is the only source on the horizon—dollars spent by the Commonwealth's voters in the new federal taxes will be divided among other states—will be irretrievably lost to Kentuckyans.
