Students Visit State Capital
Last Wednesday was the most enjoyable day for the seventh graders of Morehead, if it is a student and Paris who are in the city of Frankfort, the Capital of the State. It would be a tragedy if they did not.

Paris Monument Works
Paris, Ky.
The boys, in charge of John A. Willard, first visited the Convention farm where the students saw the many animals and birds. A guide took the group through the new Capital and the Governor's Mansion. They met with each one.
