Two cows are killed by lightning; 130 persons notified by draft board

Thursday, August 12, 1957
Sixty members of Howler Company, 19th Infantry, local national guard unit, are in Ft. Knox this week for the annual 15 day training period. They are under the command of Capt. G. G. Caywood.

Two cows belonging to Clayton Stoen were killed by lightning during the severe electrical storm Sunday night. Monday morning another cow belonging to Mr. Stoen was killed when lightning struck her in a pasture near her home.

Mr. Stoen has been made aware of whether the usual amount of lightning is being struck in the 150th anniversary of the war.
