Kentucky United Country has been named winner of the General Electric 1937 Radio Award. The award, a plaque, was presented to KU President Floyd S. Farnum at a dinner sponsored by James C. Forbes, manager of residential facilities of the U. S. Government in Lexington. Since its inception, the Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program has provided over 30,000 loans valued at more than $270 million to borrowers in 2,000 homes.

How to store potatoes, onions
If you want to store potatoes and onions for the fall and winter months, be sure they are stored in a cool, dry and well-ventilated room, says Clyde Sledge, Kentucky Expert Station vegetable specialist.
