Sunyside
By Mrs. Beulah Jackson
Mrs. John Buckler and Mrs. Pauline Buckler and little nephew Deane Minton were guests of Mrs. Sterling Jackson and Mr. Jackson Monday.

Thanksgiving was spent quietly alone at home with us as our hubby was working. No turkey or chicken but their life at our house, but when we knelt in prayer we found a long list of things over the past year that thank God for. We know we have already thanked him for lots of them, but do good once in a while to be on thank you terms with God instead of on the Gimmy Gimmy, and all the time. He knows our wants before we ask Him and He supplies our needs, so let's try at least once a week to count our blessings and see if we don't receive a great big blessing. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Jackson were guests of Mrs. Jackson's sister, Mrs. John Buckler and family Saturday.

Mrs. Ray Shanks and girls were guests last week of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watt, Yards, Mrs. Watt was on the sick list and Catherine the lovely daughter had been sick but was in good spirits the day we stopped by.

We bear by the gratitude that we are to have new neighbors in February, but more about that later.

We saw in the paper where our little neighbor, D. W. Hoobee had been in the hospital and we had had a pencil erase in his car. We'll see now, as he was out yesterday with his dad, and we saw visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Alexander.
