Sleet endangers city's water supply; 100,000 pounds burley sold here

Thursday, December 16, 1937

Carlisle's water supply, already dangerously low, has been further endangered this week because of inability of trucks to continue the hauling of water from Millersburg, due to the worst sleet in many years.

Children have been enjoying coasting on the ice covered street hills this week.

Forrest Daniell, well known farmer residing on the Miller Station road near Carlisle, suffered a bruised shoulder Monday morning when he slipped on the icy ground and fell at his home.

For the first time since stock sales were established here, no sales were held Tuesday morning at the Farmers Stock Yards. Because of the condition of the roads, only a few head of cattle were on the market and no effort was made to have the sale.

The home of the late John T. Sims on the Upper Jackstown road was sold by Master Commissioner William Conley at public auction Monday to Taylor Snelling for $3,900.

Steps taken to ban polish

Frankfort, Dec. 11—Steps are being taken to prohibit sale in Kentucky of a highly flammable and explosive furniture polish, State Fire Marshall Ray Humkey said.

Humkey warned against purchase or sale of the liquid being sold under the brand name of "Shine-Rite Polish."

The polish, Humkey said, does not carry any warning label concerning its flammable nature. Laboratory tests conducted by State Police chemists show the polish to be extremely hazardous under certain conditions existing in the home.

The polish is also advertised as being suitable for floors, linoleum, woodwork and automobiles

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12

Read Romans 12:10-18

Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. (Romans 12:12, RSV.)

I was in the navy and, for the first time, helmsman for my ship in a practice maneuver. Through a fault of mine, the gunnery officer did not get a "shot" at an imaginary submerged submarine. He reprimanded me in not too pleasant a tone and had me replaced. But after maneuvers, when we were returning to port, he said: "Take the helm; I still trust you." I now realize that the officer had not been angry at me, but at my mistake.

God does not condone sin, but He never belittles man who sins. The Bible proclaims to us the hope of salvation. A sinner can be regenerated by the power of the living Christ and right away turn from a life of sin and do so much good. The Bible teaches us that no one is the way that one day we shall meet Him face to face to have patience to defeat tribulation. By reading the Bible and preserverring in prayer, we can be in continuous communion with the Father.

PRAYER

Eternal God of mercy, hallowed by Thy name. We thank Thee for Thy Word and the blessing of prayer. Through prayer we are able to receive strength for a new heart, and to ask forgiveness of our trespasses. Protect us in Thy love; through Christ. Amen

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Blessed are they who find hope in God's Word and accept Christ as their Saviour.

B-58 BUILDER

It begins with a greater use of aluminum -and takes off from there

One idea sparked the creation of this B-58 Buick—and that was to build it with more aviation principles than ever before.

So this one starts with a greater use of airweight aluminum—inside where its special cooling properties can be used—outside where its beauty and protection are needed.

But wait till you see what else is here to make land travel as modern as air travel.

The first automatic transmission to use the infinitely variable pitch stator principle of today's stratocruisers.

The most modern engine it is possible to build for today's fuels.

A Buick-engineered air-suspension ride that literally floats you on four columns of air.

Want to know more? See more? Do more? Drop in on your Buick dealer and guest-pilot an Air Born B-58 Buick—today.

*Buick air ride optional at extra cost on all Series. Flight Pitch Dynaflow standard on Limited and Roadmaster 75, optional at extra cost on other Series. Aluminum Front Brakes standard on all Series except Special.
