Rains ease city's water situation; wheatless, meatless days in effect

Thursday, December 23, 1937

Reins during the weekend halted the hauling of water to Carlisle and a considerable quantity of water was put in the Carlisle water works lake. However, the supply is far from adequate to meet normal demands and restrictions on the use of water will be maintained at least during the remainder of this month, the city council has announced.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Adolph Rupp, the Kentucky baron of basketball, was the leading figure in several Washington newspaper stories when the U. K. Wildcats came to the Capital to play Maryland.

He was described as the "winningest" coach in the game. The Big Blue record as national champions four times in nine years was described. The Olympic games of 1948 were recalled. Kentuckians were pretty proud.

P.S. Maryland waxed the Wildcats, 71 to 62!

QUICK QUIP:

A Kentucky congressman, known for his quick wit, was asked the other day about his position on a certain issue.

Whereupon, he replied:

"I haven't made up my mind yet but when I do I'm gonna be bitter about it."

Sounds like a Barkley story to these ears.

Robert Riggs, whose stories are read in the Courier-Journal and who is seen on television from time to time, has been re elected to an office in the exclusive Gridiron Club.

MERRY CHRISTMAS:

This is the last epistle before the holidays. To all Kentuckians we wish a Merry Christmas.

Specifically, we hope each Kentuckian gets a tax reduction, a new highway convenient to work and home, an increase in salary, better schools, and less baloney, malarkey, and palaver from those who hold public office. Also, a little truth from time to time.

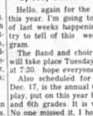
C.H.S. News

by Judy Galbraith

Hello, again for the last time this year. I'm going to tell you of last weeks happenings, and try to tell of this weeks program.

The Band and choir concert will take place Tuesday, Dec. 17, at 7:30. hope everyone goes.

Also scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 17, is the annual Christmas play, put on this year by the 5th and 6th grades. It is very cute. No one missed it, I hope.



Friday, December 20, at 1:15 in the chapel, the choir will put on their program. After this the gifts will be given out. And of course the trees will be up and decorated. All parents are invited to come. After the program school will be dismissed, until January 2.

The Student Council have gotten all the lights in the hall decorated. They look very pretty.

The School papers for December came out Tuesday, Dec. 17. I hope everyone buys a copy.

I'm sure everyone knows that the Musketeers were beaten Tuesday night, Dec. 10 by the Mt. Sterling Trojans. They played Mt. Olivet Friday, Dec. 13. They were defeated by a score of 60-49. It was a close game.

Well that's it till January 2. Be careful. and have a very MERRY CHRISTMAS! I hope Santa comes to see you.

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19

Read Psalm 144:9-15

And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song. (Ezekiel 33:32.)

Some young people were preparing to go caroling. Eric, a newcomer, asked, "Why are you doing it?"

"It is the nicest way we have found of telling Christ's story," he was told, "and we hope to reach the hearts of some who do not know Him."

At one home a nurse met them at the door. "Mr Bascom," she said, "does not believe young people are interested. Perhaps your singing will help."

Eric saw an old man in a wheel chair. His face was lined with suffering and ill will. The singers sang 'Hark' the Herald Angels Sing" "Would you do another?" the man asked, and they softly sang Phillips Brooks' "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

Later, the nurse telephoned. "You will never know what your singing meant," she said. "The minister has been here, and Mr. Bascom has accepted Christ."

Eric, a warm glow in his heart, confessed, "He isn't the only one, either."

PRAYER

Dear heavenly Father, help us to make the Christmas carols live for others. May they become as lovely songs, opening the door for Christ's entrance into many hearts. This we ask in the name of our Saviour. Amen.
