Mrs. J. S. Standfield

Mrs. Leonard Alexander was hostess to the Ellisville Homemakers Club December 4, 1952. As usual most all members were present, also some guests who were always welcome.

On arriving quite a few began assembling their Christmas packages and set rings.

Mrs. Jane Eldridge, the president, took care of all the business with Mrs. W. D. Collins conducting the devotional. Mrs. Victor Day gave the landscape notes.

Mrs. Margie Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent, gave instructions for making felt Valentine's cards and tags, displaying completed articles and patterns.

Mrs. Jean Jones reviewed "The Joyeux"—January Glimpses.

Mrs. Harold McClanahan and Mrs. Ovel Day, the recreation chairman, provided a very lively program of games and was followed by the Christmas party. Each one present received one or more gifts and became more aware that sharing with relatives is the true spirit of the holiday.

Season. All were reminded to count blessings and share with others to be happy.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

By F. E. Bawley

JENNIE BRIDGES was a nurse. A young nurse, young both in age and in experience, wasn't content to be a nurse, she wanted to be a nurse in the most just way possible before Christmas.

She had been in the hospital for several years, but she had never seen a patient who was so poor as the one who had been brought in on the day before Christmas.

She had seen many patients who were poor, but she had never seen one who was so poor as the one who had been brought in on the day before Christmas.
