Blue Jackets defeated by Maysville Muskies dropped by Sharpsburg five

By Bill Woodall

The past week of hardwood activity in Nicholas County proved disappointing to both local teams While the Musketeers were idle Friday night, the Nicholas County Blue Jackets went down to a powerful Maysville five 63-53. Monday night Coach Ed Wells's five were handed another defeat by a speedy squad from Sharpsburg, 66-58, while Tuesday night the Nicholas County hardwood five got back into the win circle by easing past Bourbon county 62-57.

Friday night, probably the largest crowd ever to witness a hardwood clash in Nicholas County, watched the Blue Jackets of Coach Charles Finnell take a ten point beating by Maysville. The Jackets matched the Bulldogs point for point during the first period, 13-13, but failed to keep pace in the third period as the Maysville squad was out front 27-23 at the midway point At the end of the third period Maysville had moved out by eight, 47-39 and out scored the Jackets by one in the last pegiod for the victory. Jennings lead the Blue Jackets with 25 points and Jones picked up 17 for the victors.

During the coming week the Nicholas County squad will be playing on opposition ground as they go to Dixie Combs Friday and take on Painstville Saturday night then visit Bracken county Tuesday night.

Friday the Musketeers will be idle then return to action at North Middletown Tuesday night.

Former pastor extends thanks to community

In a letter to Dr. G. T. Cowan, local dentist, the Rev. Irs Mc-Millen Jr., former pastor of the Carlisle Baptist church, now of Prestonsburg writes:

"Please thank all of the good people of Carlisle for their kindness and thoughtfulness in our time of need. The truckload of supplies from there was among the best that we received during the entire time and had some of the most useful items in it that came to us. I personally distributed much of the soap powder and other cleaning materials throughout many of the needy rural areas of our county between here and the Pike County line.

"We are most grateful to all of you for what you did for us.

He stated in an article last week the first truck load of supplies delivered by Eugene Neal, Bob Coatney and Mayor Bill Power was turned over to Rev. McMillen, who had promised to supervise its distribution.

A second truck load of supplies, including plenty of soap, brooms, mops and mattresses was taken Sunday by Powell Neal and Ted Insko, who delivered it also to Rev. McMillan.
