ST. JOHN'S
CATHOLIC CHURCH

Sunday Mass at 7 and 9
Weekday Mass at 7 a.m.
The instruction next Sunday will continue our series of instructions on the Holy Scriptures. The topic this Sunday will be: Who has the right to interpret the Holy Scriptures?
We will also offer a critique of the authenticity of the film "Martin Luther." All welcome.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The vital significance for people today of Jesus' healing works will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday.
Scriptural passages in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include the Master's reply to the disciples of John Baptist who questioned his mission (Luke 7:22): "Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached."
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be among those read (131:26-30): "The Mission of Jesus confirmed prophecy, and explained the so-called miracles of olden time as natural demonstrations of the divine power, demonstrations which were not understood. Jesus' works established his claim to Messiahship."

Dr. Farish helps Cane Ridge project

Dr. Hayes Farish, who recently completed a notable ministry of 35 years with the First Christian church of Lexington, is now serving as volunteer representative of the Cane Ridge Preservation Project.
Dr. Farish has been an ardent support of the Cane Ridge Project since its beginning. Under his leadership his church became one of its largest contributors.
The Cane Ridge Project has not had a full-time Director since the death of Dr. Robert M. Hopkins who directed the Project from its beginning. However, construction has continued without interruption, and is now nearing completion.
The Cane Ridge Shrine covers the historic old Cane Ridge Meeting-House in Bourbon County, Kentucky. It was here that "The Great American Revival" (Interdenominational) came to its climax in 1801. Here, too, in 1804, was born the first of two movements in American Protestantism that eventuated into the Christian Church or the Disciples of Christ."
Present plans call for this beautiful superstructure, built of native Cane Ridge limestone, to be dedicated as a "Temple of Christian Unity" the latter part of June of this year.

Mayor gets letter of thanks from Baptist pastor

February 14, 1957

Mr. William Power
Mayor of the City of Carlisle
Carlisle, Kentucky
Dear Mr. Power:
Please express to the citizens of Carlisle and Nicholas County our sincere appreciation for the generous gifts of clothing, food and cleaning supplies which were sent to us to relieve conditions resulting from the recent flood. It was the help and spirit given to us by good people like you that gave our people the courage and determination to keep working and to come back after suffering such great losses.
I would appreciate it if you would get some word of thank

Phone Co. gets Red Cross award

An American Red Cross award for "devoted support and humanitarian work" has been given Southern Bell Telephone Company. The citation includes the activities of the Carlisle exchange.
The Red Cross commended the Company particularly for its participation in first aid training.
Clyde Watts, Southern Bell Manager in Carlisle, said today, "We consider Red Cross first aid instruction to be of immeasurable value to our people in their jobs. First of all, it helps to teach them safety. And, importantly, it trains them how to act in emergency situations."
Watts said that 1601 male plant employees in Kentucky have won standard, advanced or instructor first aid certificates, and that the total for Southern Bell is 19,053. In addition, many non-plant and women employees hold certificates.

COMMENT

The first of this week we had our first brush with spring. Tobacco beds were made ready for burning, farmers ploughing, and having soil tested. The violets in our back-yard are working overtime. They were in bloom just before Christmas and are now blooming again. On Tuesday I even bought some flower seeds.
* * *
I am happy to report that Mr. and Mrs. Cardinal have again selected our front shrubs for their new home. On Tuesday afternoon they were busy looking over their new site.

With inflation the once important nickel has been relegated to one hour in the parking meter. The bus ride and phone call for a nickel have given way to the dime. It seems that Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield may be coming to the rescue of the humble nickel. That is if the proposed rate from three to five cents for letters becomes effective.
