Ellisville 4-H club
 Jean McClellan, Reporter
 Mr. Millam met with the Ellisville 4-H club Monday, Feb. 18, in Miss Helen Anderson's room at the school. Plans for Rally day April 28 were given. The program concerned the Club of 1957. Each officer should be personally engaged with the duties of the office. The club holds and serve to the best of their ability.

We gave the pledge to the flag and answered the roll call by singing our latest anthem and how it happened. Our song leaders led us in the song 'Hick Hick, plus action.

Program over very good of four talks by Phyllis Curtis, the President, talk by Sherrie Craig, The Vice President, talk by Louise Powell, talk by the secretary, talk by Harriet Taylor, The Club Reporter, talk by Jean McClellan, Song leaders, by Patty McWhorter, Miss Stone and Elizabeth, Secretary.

Next week we will have an all social in the school lunch room. The next committee has in charge of refreshments, but will be in charge of the program.

AUCTIONS FOR THE third year of Kentucky's famous one four drama. Wednesday, 1957, is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, March 11-12 at Berea College. Here a Wednesday March 13 afternoon and evening March 14 at the Little Theatre, University of Louisville. Dan Phillips, director of Wednesday, will come to Kentucky for the March auditions. Dr. Selmer, director of the Department of Drama at the University of North Carolina.

Stock Exposition in Chicago. World Series of beef shows, will be shown in Kentucky. Ray L. Hopper, secretary of the Kentucky Live Stock Association, said the Short-horn steer will be displayed at four Kentucky locations in late February and early March. Shows will be at Mayfield, Feb. 23, Lexington, Feb. 25 and 26, Louisville, Feb. 27 and 28, and Madrasville, March 1 and 2. Hopper said county agents and agricultural teachers in the areas of the state's showing are invited to take students to see the details of a "close-hand" look at a fine type of beef animal.
