Shoppers Tell What They Like Best About Places Where They Do Most Of Their Shopping

By Kenneth Fink, Director, Princeton Research Service

Princeton, New Jersey—What are the things people like best about the places where they do most of their shopping?

The question under the survey was "What would you say are the things you like best about the places where you do most of your shopping?"

Recent news mentions as things people like best about the places where they shop that the places where they shop have good parking facilities, that they are convenient to get to, that they have a wide variety of things that they can buy there, that they are convenient to get to, that they have a wide variety of things that they can buy there, that they are convenient to get to, that they have a wide variety of things that they can buy there.

Heavy rains cause high water; Committee to investigate hospital

Thursday, January 14, 1957
Heavy rains beginning Friday afternoon and continuing for several days have caused the highest water in creeks in this section in several months.

The responsible party was one of the people who were in charge of the work.
