In Memory

In remembrance of Henry Duke Clary, who departed this life Thursday, Jan. 10, 1952.

Just five years ago today
God called my dear father away.
Up in heaven, where he longed to be,
I know up there he is waiting for me.
Oh, dear father, how I do miss you
And I miss you more each day.
When to your home I wonder,
You are no longer there to stay
With a friendly word of greeting
And a smile upon your face
You had my heart's affection
And no one else can take your place.
Still some day I know I'll meet you,
On that bright and happy shore
Where we will be together
Again to part no more.
There the good Lord will protect us
He will help us day by day.
There we'll have no more sufferings
And will be at home to stay.
Sadly missed by his daughter and grandchildren. Mrs. Emma Clary Gifford. Mrs. Verdeana G. Fowler, Mrs. Thelma G. Earls, Mr. Virgil D. Gifford. Mr. Clarence E. Gifford. 1-10-1tc
