

Largest Circulation:

The Mercury therefore is the advertising medium

VOLUME 90

ESTABLISHED 1867

CARLISLE, KY., THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1957

PRICE TEN CENTS

NUMBER 3

The Carlisle Mercury

The Mercury is Sold At:
Haskins Drug Co.
Williams Restaurant
Boys Grocery
Carlisle Drug Co.

BLANK

Band director hired for NCHS

The Nicholas County Board of Education employed Andrew Chuky as band director for the Nicholas County High School, replacing Joe Frank Ireland who resided in the U. S. Air Force and entered service Jan. 10. Mr. Chuky is a graduate of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, with an A.B. in Music. He has also completed most of the requirements for an M.A. degree in music at the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

Caswell resigns assistant cashier position here

Henry Clay Caswell, assistant cashier of the First National Bank here for the past 11 years and with the bank since 1941, announced Tuesday that he has resigned, effective Feb. 1. Mr. Caswell stated he was accepting a position with the Metropolitan Insurance Company's farm loan division at Lexington.

Time to file for '57 ACP

Applications of Nicholas County Farmers for government cost sharing under the Agricultural Production (ACP) practices to be filed at the county ASC office on Thursday evening, Jan. 24. The ASC office is located in the county ASC building at 201 Main St., Lexington. Letters will be forwarded to all farmers by the ASC office this week, giving program highlights.

Morford heads Chamber of Commerce; A. V. Allison named vice president

During 1957 the Carlisle Chamber of Commerce will be headed by Dr. Jack T. Morford, one of the organization's most active charter members. Dr. Morford was named to lead the chamber at a directors' meeting held last Thursday evening. He succeeds Ralph Spencer, local veterinarian, who served as president during 1956.

NOBBIST—Roy Shapp, who spends spare moments collecting pencils. The two containers in his hands hold 100 pencils. The four-sided holder in check full, how many we forget to ask. Many of the pencils are given him by interested individuals; others are the same. The holder and stand were made by Billie Scott, local cabinet maker—Campbell photo.

Blue Jackets treat fans to thriller; Musketeers trounce Mayslick 70-45

By Bill Woodell
Friday night at the Nicholas County gymnasium the Blue Jackets of Coach Charles Finnell gave local fans a game to remember. Before a capacity crowd, the Jackets jumped to an early lead over highly touted Harrison County and weren't headed until the clock showed approximately four minutes to play. In taking the 37.06 decision from the Harrison County crew, the Jackets led 23-12 at the first step, 30-30 at half time and 40-47 at the third ending ended.

In The Service

TRANSFERRED—A. B. Eddie Hay Praher, AF1106485 from Lackland AFB, Texas to Chanute AFB, Illinois. Mail address: Stu B. O. N., Dept. Mail Room # P. O. Box 6034.

Over to Alaska
Sgt. Frank Simons Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Simons has been transferred from Fort Ord, California to Anchorage, Alaska for 18 months. Mrs. Simons and daughter are with her parents in Hawaiian, Georgia.

Army Sergeant First Class Floyd B. Williams, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Williams, Carlisle, recently married with his company in a parade at Fort Riley, Kan., honoring departing key officers of the 10th Regiment. Assigned to the regimental headquarters in Company D, Sergeant Williams entered the Army in 1948 and returned to the U. S. from a tour of duty in Europe in July 1956. Williams attended Dulane high school at Moulton, Kentucky.

Blake to run for 57 ACP

Senator Stanley H. Blake announced Wednesday that he will be a candidate for re-nomination for the State Senate in the 30th Senatorial District which includes Nicholas, Harrison, Robertson, Bracken, Pendleton and Grant counties. Mr. Blake is currently serving as organizer of the Hunter Trosbyerist church in Lexington.

PROPERTY TRANSFERS

Elizabeth McDonald and husband, Kendrick Smythe and wife, 30 acres on Headquarters Road. Joseph E. Mathias by Executor for Ben Stout and wife, lot on Main Street.

D. V. SNAPP ELECTED

Announcement has been made of the election of Dennis Snapp as executive secretary of the board of Education of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist church at a meeting in Philadelphia last week. The new officers will serve until 1960.

SUFFERERS SPRAINED ANKLE

Warriors who were injured during the series of tests during the first few minutes of play. The Musketeers pulled ahead and kept the contest completely in hand. Coach Willis was able to play his second injury through most of the contest. The quarter scores were 20-13, 26-23 and 40-47.

Worford heads Chamber of Commerce; A. V. Allison named vice president

Dr. Morford is a native of West Virginia. He was born at Spencer and graduated from high school at Statesville in 1942. He received an A.B. degree from Martins College in Ohio, then entered the Louisville (Ky.) Medical School and completed his studies in 1948. He did his internship at the Good Samaritan hospital, Lexington.

Burley group favors 1956 allotments

Directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association, Lexington, in a recent meeting unanimously endorsed the action of the USDA in approving 1956 allotments in effect next year. Earlier the USDA announced that present acreage allotments would be continued. The Secretary of Agriculture made this decision despite these factors:

Sheep breeding practices to be aired at convention

Improved sheep breeding practices will be discussed at a special session at the 45th annual Farm and Home week convention Jan. 21 at the University of Kentucky. P. G. Woodluff, Experiment Station sheep specialist, will preside at the meeting, opening at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 21 in the Pavilion Arena.

Jackets to play Bracken county

The Nicholas County Blue Jackets will meet the Bracken County Polar Bears in a game on the local floor Wednesday night, Jan. 18. Reserve game is slated at 7:00. This game was scheduled earlier in the year but due to the P.A.C. tournament it was postponed to the above date. The Bluejackets have not lost a regular scheduled home game.

Attended Dairy Meet Wednesday

The meeting sponsored jointly by the Carlisle-Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce and the dairy producers of Nicholas County was very well attended, and a more detailed story will appear next week. Prizes awarded at the meeting were five pounds of Melbregre given by E. M. South, Standard Oil Co., and one by Melbregre given by E. M. South, W. E. Lynam; drop light, Dairy Bros. A. Fisher, Bill Hughes; can distributor, Berkey Co.; Jefferson; filter cans, Howe Hardware; Carl Scott; BK Powder, Dake, Young, milk strainer, Co.; Bourdon; George Sady; 100 lb. milk, show, Huston's, Chester; block of salt, Ratliff Bros.; Oval Day; 100 lb. dairy feed Southern State Carillo, Ohio Scott; milk can 10 gal., Berkey; Edgar Scott; dairy heater, Chamber of Commerce; plus 90 lbs. call starts (Huntan), John R. Fryman; block of salt, Ratliff Bros., C. Cartmeger—Mercury photo.

'57 phone almanac Food sale for Polio Jan. 26

Important contributions to human progress by leaders in various fields are featured in the newest edition of the Bell System's most widely-read book, the Telephone Almanac. Drawings of such varied persons as Geoffrey Chaucer, Isaac Newton, and Alexander Graham Bell illustrate the important pages, with brief accounts of how these people helped to shape our present-day life.

Real Estate Sales

The 40-acre farm of Walter Kendall, located on the Locust Grove road one mile off the Moorefield road, was sold at auction to W. D. Smart of Carlisle for $19,110.

Sheep bred at convention

Improved sheep breeding practices will be discussed at a special session at the 45th annual Farm and Home week convention Jan. 21 at the University of Kentucky. P. G. Woodluff, Experiment Station sheep specialist, will preside at the meeting, opening at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 21 in the Pavilion Arena.

Jackets to play Bracken county

The Nicholas County Blue Jackets will meet the Bracken County Polar Bears in a game on the local floor Wednesday night, Jan. 18. Reserve game is slated at 7:00. This game was scheduled earlier in the year but due to the P.A.C. tournament it was postponed to the above date. The Bluejackets have not lost a regular scheduled home game.

CLARK ESTATE

In order to settle the estate of the late W. R. Clark, approximate 420 acres of land will be offered for sale. See advertisement on page 8.

Worford heads Chamber of Commerce; A. V. Allison named vice president

Dr. Morford is a native of West Virginia. He was born at Spencer and graduated from high school at Statesville in 1942. He received an A.B. degree from Martins College in Ohio, then entered the Louisville (Ky.) Medical School and completed his studies in 1948. He did his internship at the Good Samaritan hospital, Lexington.

Burley group favors 1956 allotments

Directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association, Lexington, in a recent meeting unanimously endorsed the action of the USDA in approving 1956 allotments in effect next year. Earlier the USDA announced that present acreage allotments would be continued. The Secretary of Agriculture made this decision despite these factors:

Sheep breeding practices to be aired at convention

Improved sheep breeding practices will be discussed at a special session at the 45th annual Farm and Home week convention Jan. 21 at the University of Kentucky. P. G. Woodluff, Experiment Station sheep specialist, will preside at the meeting, opening at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 21 in the Pavilion Arena.

Jackets to play Bracken county

The Nicholas County Blue Jackets will meet the Bracken County Polar Bears in a game on the local floor Wednesday night, Jan. 18. Reserve game is slated at 7:00. This game was scheduled earlier in the year but due to the P.A.C. tournament it was postponed to the above date. The Bluejackets have not lost a regular scheduled home game.

CLARK ESTATE

In order to settle the estate of the late W. R. Clark, approximate 420 acres of land will be offered for sale. See advertisement on page 8.

Worford heads Chamber of Commerce; A. V. Allison named vice president

Dr. Morford is a native of West Virginia. He was born at Spencer and graduated from high school at Statesville in 1942. He received an A.B. degree from Martins College in Ohio, then entered the Louisville (Ky.) Medical School and completed his studies in 1948. He did his internship at the Good Samaritan hospital, Lexington.