Veteran of War Between the States dies; young child killed as buggy overturns

Funeral—Fred Cook, 47, died last Wednesday afternoon at his home on the Henderson street following a long illness. Mr. Cook was a veteran of the War Between the States and was a member of the Carline Post No. 1232 G. A. R. He was born in Virginia and spent most of his life in Nicholas County. He was a member of the Carline Christian church. He was buried at the Carline cemetery on Friday at 10:30 A.M. by Rev. H. B. Boardman. He was survived by a son, Fred Cook, Sr., and a daughter, Mrs. Mary Cook. He was also survived by a young child, Fred Cook, Jr., who was killed when his buggy overturned on the Henderson street on Wednesday afternoon. The child was taken to the Carline Hospital where he died on Thursday. The cause of the accident was determined to be a defective spring in the buggy. The buggy was owned by Fred Cook, Sr.
