NEAL'S SQUARE DEAL, Where Ma Saves Pa's Dough

Yo outdoor stuff

Mooshaw Whiskey, made by an honest manufacturer from White Corn Meal ground from corn that was grown on a hillside in Virginia, Va., planted by the Old Dominion Distiller of the fine graining season about to open, my curiosity because I had heard I went over to talk with Old Timer and get a few pointers on the art of frog hunting.

Old Timer as usual was sitting in his wicker rocker in front of the fireplace smoking his old pipe.

"I'm talking with him and his good wife a short while I got around to the subject of frog hunting."

"You know young man," he continued "frogs at one time were great medical value a few years back. I've got a recipe here that worth a million dollars at one time but since all these medicines and shots have come around its not of great use." At this time he went to the bureau opened the drawer and took out a copy of "Toads grip" paper, whose edges showed they had been handled pretty roughly and the corners were worn round. "Here it is right here," he explained reaching the paper over to me and here are the very words that were written there:

"Take the dry skin of an adult frog, caught on the river bank facing the north during the full moon, that was caught with the bare hands, use no spears and grind to a fine powder. Mix well in one quart of kno for forty years."

COMMENT

Atkinson Cavanaugh Wedding Date Set

This week's Comment comes from Richmond, Virginia at a most pleasant trip via the Chesapeake and Ohio "George Washington" soon after being returned in the car of the Richmond. I found it to be the only person in the car who was not a stranger in the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. They were all on their way to Newport, News, Virginia to the annual stock holders meeting. After having voted one imaginary share of stock for me, I was formally asked to join their festivities. The best of which was the 25th Anniversary Birthday dinner of the "George Washington" the union steak dinner made famous 25 years ago during his inaugural year. Though today's menu listed the price as $4.75 it was more for $1.25. The 1932 price.

Have seen my play The Mad woman of Chailly by Jean Giraudoux presented by the Virginia Museum Theatre. The theatre is within the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts building and was given by the entire audience. I am going back one day and go there. The entire building here's hoping I don't get lost.
