Telephone Talk
by CLYDE WATTS
Your Telephone Manager

WHAT'S HE UP TO? I know you've seen Stewart Burke around Carlisle in his neat, businesslike telephone truck. Stewart installs and repairs home and business phones, and he really gets around. Drove some 12,000 miles in this area last year. Stewart's telephone pals, the line and cable crews, use the bigger trucks you see. They keep busy installing new lines and constantly checking existing ones to be sure they're in good condition. You see, preventing trouble is a big part of our job—testing wires, cables and equipment and replacing if needed to avoid breakdown. It all adds up to telephone service you can depend on, every hour of the day, every day of the year.

• • •

FRIEND OF MINE SAYS breakfast in bed is his idea of really living it up. Let's face it—that's a luxury few of us can ever indulge. But having a bedside phone—even without the breakfast—is good living that's both practical and inexpensive. My friend was a bit surprised when I reminded him an extra phone for the bedroom costs about four cents a day. Saves running 'round the house at night or when you want to relax. Looks pretty too, in one of those smart decorator colors. And say, the lady of the house would welcome a handy wall telephone for her kitchen. Why not call our Business Office for more information?

Mrs. George Dale gave the landscape notes, pertaining to annual flowers, roses and shrubs.

Mrs. Darrell and Mrs. Gaunce gave a very interesting lesson on "deserts." The members learned many good points from this lesson. For instance desserts that are attractive in color add a great dea lto the meal. They should be part of your menu and not a special dish which one membe ro the family enjoys. Serve not more than once a day, at least three times a week. Fruit should be served often. One point everyone should remember is not to eat sweets between meals. After the lesson everyone enjoyed the dessert prepared by the leaders.

The club gave $3.00 for a 4-H delegate to attend 4-H week.

Mrs. Darrell la dcharge-of the recreation which consisted of each member decorating a hat. Mrs. Daniel Grimes and Mrs. Sehlly Gaunce won the prizes. Mrs. Benjamin Allison and Mrs. Dickie Grimes were winners of prizes in the other games. A very enjoyable day was had by all.
