By Judy Galloway
 Everyone came back from the C.K.A. reunion rested and ready for work.

In the last week of the past six weeks, will it be long until report cards come out.

The Mauleton was Friday night and was more enjoyed. They beat M.E.I. 14-11. It was very close.

Everyone was a winner. It was a sore on the side they saw every hope every one saw the game. It was really tough.

Again this week the school patrol boys did a wonderful job of parking cars and getting them out.

Friday night the Mauletoners spent Saturday night with Mrs. Snapp's father, Harold Early, wife, Mrs. Wiley.

Telephone Talk

By Clyde Watts
 Your Telephone Manager

GOOD QUARTERBACKING—Watching our University of Ky. Wildcats in action Saturday night, it occurred to me that making a Long Distance call is like a good play on the field. When you know the signals—you call by number and your call goes through faster. Also knowing the right play helps. In the same manner, when a station call will serve your purpose just as well as a person-to-person call and is much cheaper. You can save still more by placing your call in the end zone—that's right after 6 or anytime Sunday. Yes, you'll come out ahead when you know the signals—call by number—call station-to-station—call after 6 on Sundays.

OPERATION ALERT—Here, as in other small communities, we don't worry too much about enemy attacks and bombings. Today there is a Civil Defense system designed to warn us in the event of sudden danger. Part of this system is a telephone system. This system is available by telephone companies. If disaster should come, these facilities will be used by every exchange of the Bell System and of the 4,700 independent telephone companies in the nation. In minutes, warnings, instructions, decisions would flow wherever needed. Telephone folks everywhere are proud to be a part of this national undertaking.

BUNGALOW OR MANSION—We have a tailor-made telephone service plan for you—all the phones you need in colors that please you. Most plans can be furnished at less additional cost than you are now paying for your main telephone. How often have you heard someone in your house say: "If it just didn't have to run all over the house to answer the phone." That's why I thought you'd be glad to know we've a plan for your special telephone convenience. Why not give us a buzz for details?
