Several plan to attend plowing contest

The 1957 World's Plowing Contest and the World's Conservation Exposition will be in progress in Adams county, near Peebles, Ohio, 30 miles from Maysville, Sept. 17-20. The '57 event marks the fifth world's plowing competition, and the first time it ever has been held on American soil.

Plowing contestants from 20 countries will be competing for world wide honors in a show the like of which will not be seen in this area of the world for another fifteen years. Representing the United States will be 46 year old Lawrence Goettemoeller, owner and operator of a 220 acre farm in Mercer county, Ohio; and John Daniels, 35, who operates 355 acres near Mulberry Grove, Illinois. They earned the right to represent the United States in the World Contest by winning the level land and the contour championship in the 1957 National Plowing Contest in Jasper County, Ind.

The Ohio farm girl chosen as "Queen of the Furrow" will serve as official hostess for one of America's biggest and most colorful agricultural events.

Many farmers from Nicholas and neighboring counties plan to attend.

The program follows: Sept. 17, Youth Day and Ohio State Plowing Contests; Sept. 18, National Plowing Contest—level land and contour. Sept. 19-20, World's Plowing Contests; Sept 21, Rain date.

Nicholas Fair

jointly by the Fair Committee and the Kentucky Artificial Breeding Association in Louisville. Four rings are limited to F.F.A. members and a similar department of four rings is being limited to members of 4-H clubs. A total of 27 Classes are included in the Dairy Show which is more than double the size of the classes and premiums offered last year. A milking contest, limited to girls of 18 years of age and under, will be staged in connection with the Dairy Show. The grand winner in this milking contest will be declared the Dairy Princess for Nicholas County.

The name of the Fair has been changed to Nicholas County Fair instead of Nicholas County Youth Fair. This change in title has been made because some confusion existed as to whether adults could exhibit at the Fair or not. For the past ten years the number of departments added to the Fair in which adults can exhibit has gradually increased and hence this change was made this year in the title of the Fair. However, there are many entries in the Fair that are restricted to such Youth groups as 4-H Clubs, Future Farmers, Future Homemakers. This change in title in no way implies that less emphasis will be given to the Youth exhibits. President Gaunce said.

Printed catalogues are available for the 1957 Fair and are now being distributed to interested persons throughout the county. Any family not receiving a copy may obtain one by contacting the County Agent's Office.

CONFESSION? — Ask The Man Who Goes There!

athedics go to Confession to a priest for one reason only—to receive divine forgiveness for their sins.

But why, you ask, go to a priest? Why not confess our sins directly to God?

Ask the man who goes to Confession and here's what he will tell you. Sin is an offense against God; it must be forgiven by God. It is God, not man, who dispenses how forgiveness must be obtained. Jesus Christ Himself made it clear when He empowered His Apostles and their successors to forgive sins or to refuse forgiveness.

"Whose sins you shall forgive," Christ said, "they are forgiven them, whose sins you shall retain, they are retained" (John 20:21-23). Thus Christ authorized the Apostles, and their successors, to pardon or to deny pardon as they judge the sinner worthy or unworthy. To do this they had to know what they were forgiving—the secret dispositions of the sinner, his sorrow and willingness to repair the wrong done to his neighbor by his sins. Who could make this known but the sinner himself—and what is this but confession?

But Confession—the Sacrament of Penance—is only one of the seven Sacraments Christ left in his Church. Yes, seven—no more and no less! Christ's religion is not merely a message to be accepted, or a life to be lived—from the cradle to the grave. Christ's seven sacraments are the answer to man's even basic needs.

Man is born, but he needs to be born a Christian in the Sacrament of Baptism. He is nourished, but he needs Christian nourishment in Holy Communion, the Sacrament of the Eucharist. He grows, but he needs to grow and be strengthened in Christian life by the Sacrament of Confirmation. He is cured of disease, but he needs a remedy for sin, so decorative of Christian life, and that remedy is the Sacrament of Penance.

Man lives in society which needs officials to promote the common good—and for his life in the Church he needs officials provided by the Sacrament of Orders. He perpetuates the human race in marriage which Christ made the Sacrament of Matrimony. And at death, he needs consolation and strength for the last dread hour which he finds in the Last Anointing—the Sacrament of Extreme Unction.

Would you like to know more about each of the seven Sacraments? How they can help you to meet the seven basic needs of your life? Then write today for a free pamphlet which gives important information concerning them. Ask for Folder No. F-53.

COMMENT

This week the County schools opened, but for us that first week of getting orientated is over. And we are unwillingly getting into the routine of fall and winter.

As for myself I am learning a new, that the schools are fun for those who wish to take the line of least resistance—to get by anything just so it's easy. Clubs, organizations or what have you must be worked into the school day even if it means a class required in most high schools and colleges is left out.

The ambitions and desires of a few are dismissed as unimportant because the subject they may want is not required. I sincerely hope the ambitious few will be able to succeed in spite of their high school handicaps.—B.T.F.

Hale-Letton Vows Said Sunday

Miss Barbara Jane Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor N. Hale of Prestonsburg, was married Sunday to George Clark Letton Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Letton of Paris. The vows were exchanged at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Methodist Church in Prestonsburg with the Rev. Harold W. Dorsey officiating.

The altar was banked with white gladioli and chrysanthemums, palms and smilax, interspersed with white tapers in cathedral candelabra. A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Marion Salisbury of Prestonsburg, organist; and Miss Patricia Gray of Lexington, vocalist.

Miss Hale was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown of white Chantilly lace and pleated tulle was made with a fitted bodice, portrait neckline outlined with re-embroidered appliques, and long sleeves pointed over the wrists. A ruffle of crystal pleating bordered the ouffant lace skirt and formed a cascade in back which terminated in a chapel train. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a cap of matching lace embroidered with lace and seed pearls, and she carried a cascade arrangement of orphanidis and ivy centered with a white orchid.

Miss Diana Gray of Lexington was her cousin's maid of honor and wore a frock of emerald chiffon with shirred bodice and full ballerina skirt. Her head band was of matching material and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow spider chrysanthemums.

Mr. Letton was his son's best man. Seating the guests were Robert W. Letton, brother of the bridegroom, Paul Dudley, Thomas Duke Belt, James Dundon and Robert Crump, all of Paris; Jay Paxton, Louisville; Spalding Smith, Lebanon and Gary Thompson, Prestonsburg, cousin of the bride.

The reception was held at the church. A four tiered cake flanked by white tapers in silver candelabra, decorated the bride's table.

Mr. and Mrs. Letton will live at 2245 Fairlawn Circle, Fairview Park, Cleveland, Ohio, after their wedding trip to the Poconos Mountains.

The bride is a graduate of Harlan High School, Versailles, and received a B.S. degree from the College of Commerce of the University of Kentucky. She has completed work for her master of arts degree at the University and is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta social sorority and Delta Pi Epsilon honorary fraternity.
