NOTICE

In accordance with the Law of Kentucky I am required to order all land owners bordering on the public roads to remove all brush, bushes, weeds, overhanging limbs of trees and all other obstructions therefrom.

Any person failing to cut and clear the brush, bushes, weeds, overhanging limbs of trees and all other obstructions are subject to a fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

The great majority of people in the country have children who started to school on Monday morning, September 9. We know that you do not want to endanger the lives of your children on the school buses. Unless the weeds, brush, bushes, weeds, overhanging limbs of trees and other obstructions are cleared between the travel portion of the road and the fences, the lives of a great many children are being jeopardized daily.

We urge everyone to get out their mowing machines, axes, and grubbing hoes. Let's adopt a new slogan in Nicholas County—CLEAN RIGHTS OF WAY SAVE SCHOOL CHILDRENS LIVES—

1,003 in County schools

One thousand and three children have enrolled in the Nicholas County schools during the first week. The enrollments by grades are as follows: first, 106; second; 89; third, 89; fourth, 102; fifth, 104; sixth, 114; seventh, 76; eighth, 88; ninth, 65; tenth, 65; eleventh, 51; twelfth 48; exceptional children, 8.

Nicholas County probably has the smallest number of children today that it has had since its very early history, however last week's enrollment was larger than any enrollment for the past several years. There are 1,065 children in the County.

There is considerable more interest in school this year than we have had for several years. Parents and children have been cooperative and schools have lost little time in making the usual adjustments necessary at the beginning of the term.

The schools have been receiving foods almost daily from the U. S. Department of Agriculture for the school lunch program. The foods received have been meat, canned cherries, rice, butter, processed cheese, dried eggs, and milk.

RED CROSS MAKES PLEA FOR CLOTHING

Mrs. Marvin Shrout, executive secretary of the Nicholas County Chapter of the American Red Cross, has issued a plea for discarded or outgrown clothing for unfortunate school children to wear.

Persons with wearing apparel are asked to bring same to the Red Cross office over Hopkins Drug Store.

NEW COLONEL—F. R. Sampson, Blue Lick, was recently appointed a Kentucky Colonel by Acting Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield upon the recommendation of the Hon Brooks Hanks, State Representative of Nicholas and Bourbon counties. Mr. Sampson, 67, is a life-long Democrat and a retired farmer. He and Mrs Sampson, the former Hattie Hunter have been married 56 years and have three children. Thelma, Mrs J. A. Standiford of Nicholas County; Henry Bishop Sampson of Cincinnati; and Roger Clay Sampson, also of the County. They have four grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Luther Thompson due to retire September 30

Thirty-six years is a long, long time, but it has been that, plus five months extra, since a certain young man began delivering mail on route two from the Carlisle postoffice.

Come rain, come shine, Luther Thompson has "carried the mail" for 31½ years on route two and five years on route one, only missing two days because of the weather. In 1932 he suffered a severe attack of appendicitis and took a four-month leave of absence.

All things come to an end. He is retiring September 30 and will be missed by 200 boxholders, a big reduction from 375 five years ago.

Daily driving has increased from 31 miles to 67 miles and he has driven every twice the distance now that five did when he began as a rural carrier. Asked if he had any idea how many miles he had covered he swallowed hard—and what he said over the phone!

Questioned as to future plans and if he would turn his attention to his greenhouse he said, 'Naw, that's Bill's job (His son-in-law). Only when pressed into service occasionally, I'm going to catch up on my fishin'."

C. R. Scott will take over as temporary carrier of Carlisle route one the first of October, it was stated.

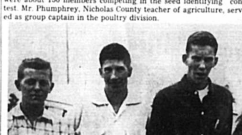
There were about 150 members competing in the seed identifying contest. Mr. Pumphrey, Nicholas County teacher of agriculture, served as group captain in the poultry division.



Carlisle defeats Stanford 26-0 in second thriller of grid season

by George Gaffin

The Muskies overpowered Stanford in game on loser's field Friday night.

Carlisle kicked to Stanford and the ball was downed on the 25 yard line. After three unsuccessful tries for a first down Stanford kicked to the 35. Leroy Hawkins rushed through for a first down and Asbury McGuffey gained two yards, but Carlisle was forced to kick and the ball was fumbled Stanford took over on Carlisle's 20 yard line. Carlisle halted all moves to advance and took over on the 25 yard line. A five yard penalty put Carlisle back on the 20 yard line where the were stopped by Stanford.

In the second quarter Stanford kicked and Carlisle started a long move downfield. Hawkins made a first down, and Stanley Wilson went over for a first down, to about the 20 yard line. Asbury was stopped about the ten yard line. Leroy Hawkins rushed over for the touchdown and also the extra point.

With the score, Carlisle 7-Stanford 0 Stanford started passing. Ronnie Wilson intercepted a pass and ran to the 50 yard line. After a drive of 25 yards Stanford took over and were stopped.

In the last quarter with the ball on Stanford's 45 yard line, Stanley Wilson broke lose for a 20 yard gain. Hawkins gained a first and Asbury carried the ball across the line for another six points. Stanley galloped across the line to up score 14-0. Stanford's spirit was pretty low, although they tried a few weak passes, but their gains were few.

Carlisle rushed Stanford and they were forced to kick. Asbury caught the ball on the 40 and galloped up the side line for a touchdown, the extra point was unsuccessful. Stanford received and fumbled on the 35 yard line. Carlisle took over and with the help of Stanley Wilson's 17 yard gain and Bobby Henry's magnificent pass (in knee deep mud) to Billy Straw who ran for another touchdown. The try for extra point was unsuccessful Final score 26-0.

SCOUT MEET HELD

A roundtable meeting under the direction of Raymond Bowling of Paris was held last Thursday night at the courthouse, and attended by 28 unit leaders and ginning of proper nouns with all else in lower case lettering) we're convinced that they give The Carlisle Mercury that extra little push, that makes for a better newspaper.

Now we can't honestly say that Mr. Arnold was directly responsible for our changing to the downstyle head, but he probably influenced the e&p of the newspaper in which we first noted the headline treatment—the Gainesville (Fla.) Daily Sun.

That first issue downstyle, back in February 1956, looked good, to us, but public acceptance of The Mercury in the homes of Nicholas County is our proof that the idea is liked.

Issue of The Mercury is used to illustrate downstyle article

The e&p of The Carlisle Mercury feels honored, what with having the July 4, 1957 issue of The Mercury used to illustrate an article in The Publishers' Auxiliary written by Edmund C. Arnold, editor of The Linotype News, a publication of the Mergenthaler Company, Brooklyn, New York.

Reproduced above is a portion of the article in The Publishers' Auxiliary, the complete copy can be found adorning the wall in the front office of The Mercury.

After nearly two years of using downstyle heads, (capitals at the beginning of the headline and beginning of proper nouns with all else in lower case lettering) we're convinced that they give The Carlisle Mercury that extra little push, that makes for a better newspaper.

Now we can't honestly say that Mr. Arnold was directly responsible for our changing to the downstyle head, but he probably influenced the e&p of the newspaper in which we first noted the headline treatment—the Gainesville (Fla.) Daily Sun.

Roy C. Gray, chairman of the State ASC Committee announced today that general provisions of recent legislation permitting farmers whose wheat acreage allotment is less than 30 acres to grow up to 30 acres of wheat for use exclusively on the farm where produced. The new provision will apply only to 1958 and future crops and does not apply to the 1957 and prior wheat crops.

Another provision contained in this law provides that no acreage seeded to wheat for harvest as grain in 1958 or thereafter in excess of the wheat acreage allotment on any farm, regardless of the size of the wheat allotment, shall be considered in establishing future State, county, or farm acreage allotments. The revision in farm law relating to acreage allotments and marketing quotas will enable a livestock and poultry producer

$750 awards, premiums offered at County Fair

More than $750 will be offered in awards and premiums during the Annual Nicholas County Fair to be held next week, according to Shelly Gaunce, Fair president. Over half of the premium money has been reserved for the youth organizations of the County. Other awards will be given on the flowers, hunting dogs, and adult, garden, tobacco, dairy, pony, and home economics exhibits. Mr. Gaunce states, that one purpose of the Fair over the years has been to encourage adults as well as youth to take pride in their field of interest. For this reason, through the efforts of the Sportsman's Club, and others, a show has been arranged for the hunting dogs, ponies, and frozen foods.

One change in the Fair catalog has been made which pertains to 4-H and FHA classes. In addition to the Unit exhibits, an open 4-H Canning division will be made to include classes Number 129 through 134 in the Fair catalogue. For F.H.A. it includes Classes 112 through 116. This will allow any F.H.A. or 4-H girl to exhibit canned goods regardless of her year in school or club work. All canning must be done during the past year.

Other additions not listed in the catalogue will be the Nicholas County high school band performance before and during the Pony Show to be held on the courthouse lawn beginning at 1:30 p.m. CDT Friday, September 27. All Nicholas County ponies are eligible to enter. The Sportsmans Dog Show will be held in front of the Carlisle Armory Thursday night, September 26 beginning at 8:00 p.m., CDT. There is a class for every hunting dog and all sportsmen are invited to bring their dogs and compete.

Following the Pony Show, Friday night, Carlisle high school will play Lancaster in a night game, beginning at 8:00 p.m., CDT. This will be the first home game for the Carlisle team, which has a 2-0 record. Rides, food, etc. will be available for all throughout the Fair.
