Dear Santa,
I'm a girl 10 yrs. old. I go to the Moorefield School. I am in the 3rd grade. I go to Sunday school and Church every Sunday. Would you please bring me a little jacket to use when we have our next assembly. I would like a book, a skirt and a doll. I'm looking forward to seeing you in town on Saturday.

Dear Santa,
I'm a girl 7 yrs. old. I've tried to be good. I go to Moorefield School and Church regularly. Please bring me the following things: a life jacket, an umbrella, a pair of shoes, a doll, and a book. I'm looking forward to seeing you in town on Saturday.

Dear Santa,
We are two little girls, ages four and five years old. We're trying to be good. Santa, we would like for you to bring us each a little doll with buttons and a book. I'm looking forward to seeing you in town on Saturday.

Remember all the other little boys and girls.

Dear Santa, I'm a little boy 19 years old. I have been a good boy and I'm not asking much for my birthday. I would like to have a toy car, a farm set and a truck. The truck and tractor are my two favorites. Don't forget all the other boys and girls who are looking for you.

Dear Santa,
I am a little boy 4 years old. I have been a good boy and I mind my Mommy and Daddy. I would like to have a toy car, a farm set and 2 guns. I'm looking forward to seeing you in town on Saturday.

"But Why The Candles, Holy Water And Beads?"
"It looks like Jordan was on me," Dave Gault said to Father Cruise. Dave was expressing a question concerning the Catholic use of such articles as beads, candles, medals and holy water in connection with religious services and the use to which they are put. There is nothing pagan or superstitious about them, and they have a very real religious meaning and value.
