Youth from Scotland visits Simons family

PETER R WALKER

Peter Bryce Walker, an international Farm Youth Exchangee from Scotland, arrived on Monday to be a guest for three weeks in the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. James Simons, Carlisle Route 3.

As a representative of the youth program, Walker will share in the work and play of his host family. He will also learn about activities and interests of the community and county to further his knowledge of rural life in Kentucky and the United States. He has recently spent several weeks in Wyoming.

Upon his return to Scotland, he will share his experiences through reports and talks, just as 35 Kentucky 4-H'ers have done throughout the state upon their return from other countries. The objective of the program is increased understanding between the people of various countries.

Mr Walker has completed two years of study in the Scotland Agricultural College. With his mother and two younger brothers, he lives on a 940-acre livestock farm. Although the family has 155 head of Ayrshire cattle, he is especially interested in swine breeding.

Mrs. Simons, who is a past president of the county 4-H Council, has been an active 4-H club leader for more than 20 years, and is greatly interested in the youth program of the county, says W. T. Straw, county agent in Nicholas county.

The IFYE program is sponsored by the University of Kentucky 4-H Club Department, and is conducted jointly by the National 4-H Club Foundation and the Cooperative Extension Service.

Council holds first meet as fourth class city

The regular meeting of the Carlisle city council was held Monday night with Councilmen H. C. Galbraith, William H. Frey, Robert Coatney and Rector W. Smoot, Mayor Bill Power, City Clerk W. J. Greene and City Attorney Roger Womack in attendance. Following the reading of the minutes of the June 2 meeting it was noted by Attorney Womack that the city was now of fourth class rank. Minutes were approved as read.

A representative of the Kentucky Municipal League explained a program of group insurance for city employees. Action on group insurance was tabled until the next meeting night.

Leroy Morgan of Lexington, a representative of an insurance firm explained to the council the advantages and disadvantages of an 80% co-insurance contract, for insurance on city buildings and other equipment.

On a motion by Councilman Galbraith, seconded by Coatney, it was voted to allow Tom Lloyd of West Main Main street a building permit to put in a front porch.

A motion passed to furnish the Carlisle Stock Yards with free water until January 1, 1959 was proposed by Councilman Frey, seconded by Smoot, the motion stipulated that the first 5,000 gallons each month would be free all over that amount the stock yards would pay for.

Galbraith-Frey: to exempt the automobiles of Police Chief Eugene Purvis, Patrolman Curran and Bealert from taxes, also passed.

Galbraith-Smoot: to grant Purvis and Curran five day leaves with pay. Passed.

In a statement before council, Mayor Power quoted Gov. A. B. Chandler as saying "he would rebuild Dorsey avenue in its entirety." Gov. Chandler made the commitment last Friday night at the Blackberry festival, the Mayor said.

Coatney-Smoot: pay all outstanding bills.

Galbraith-Coatney: to transfer $3,000 from the sewer sinking fund to the city operating account should the need arise, passed unanimously.

Coatney-Frey: that all existing ordinances made while the city was fifth class be adopted for use, passed.

Mayor Power also pointed out that as a fourth class city only three councilmen were necessary to constitute a quorum. Previously a quorum consisted of four councilmen.
