"All Right...I'll Tell You WHY I AM A CATHOLIC"

You may have heard that your neighbor is a Catholic because his father was. Perhaps you believe that ignorance, superstition and fear keep him loyal to his Faith.

But your common sense should tell you that these are NOT the reasons . . . that there MUST be something deep and vital and certain about a Faith which can hold the devoted loyalty of nearly 400 millions of people of every race, color and tongue on earth.

Not every Catholic can explain the reasons for his deep conviction in a way that you would understand. For the grace of God that nourishes a man's soul . . . and the willingness to believe that moves his heart . . . are elements of faith which cannot be readily reduced to logic and reason, nor easily explained.

But there are practical and common sense reasons why so many millions of people are Catholics. And they are such convincing reasons that a young Catholic lawyer, with all the analytical exactness of his profession, has been moved to publish them in a booklet explaining "Why I Am A Catholic."

The Catholic system of thought, he says, provides him with reasonable, self-consistent answers to the basic questions which trouble mankind. He finds it reasonable to believe, as the Church teaches, that man has a physical body and a rational soul . . . that man and his world were created by God . . . and that man lives primarily "to return to God by saving his soul through love of God and his neighbor."

With these principles to guide him, the Catholic finds it both logical and necessary to fulfill his obligations to other men . . . to obey the civil laws . . . and to labor for the improvement of society as well as personal gain. For him, the basic principles of democratic freedom are not merely a political code of ethics but a fundamental part of his religion. Human rights, the right of private property, and government with the consent of the people, are essentials of Catholic philosophy of life.

Communism, the lawyer says, is a deadly menace to the world because the solutions it offers to men's problems, though definite, are false and often hideous. Catholicism alone, he adds, offers answers equally as definite and forceful, and backed up by an equal unity and zeal.

"Catholicism," he continues, "gives me confidence and courage to face the present and the future . . . the confidence of one who has a map upon which the path to a sound, secure and peaceful future is well outlined; the courage of one who knows that the guide has behind it the experience of 2,000 years, the viewpoint of the world itself, and the devotion of countless millions. I am a Catholic because I am convinced that the Catholic church is the true church founded by Christ."

Parks Homemakers

by Mrs. Ray Wagoner Jr.

The Parks Homemakers met June 5 at the home of Mrs. W. L. Marr.

There were eleven members, one guest, Mrs. William Dollins and five children present.

Officers for the coming year were nominated and voted upon. They are as follows: Mrs. Mason Byrant, president; Mrs. Harvey Wagoner, vice president; Mrs. Ray Wagoner Jr., secretary-treasurer. The following chairmen were chosen: Mrs. W. L. Marr, publicity; Mrs. Warner Lowe, citizenship; Mrs. Dorsey Watkins, reading; Mrs. Horace Bell, recreation.

We enjoyed a picnic lunch after which the lesson on basket making was given by Mrs. Dorsey Watkins, Mrs. Frank Trimble and Mrs. Ray Wagoner Jr.

Plans were made for a hayride July 17.

We hope our home agent, Mrs. Wilson will soon be able to be with us again.

Cassidy

by Mrs. T. H. Vice

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Letcher spent Saturday night with his parents and accompanied their two daughters, Martha and Susan home, after a two weeks visit with their grandparents and other relatives here.

Rev. Jesse Florence spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Vice and Tommy.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Humphery and children and Mrs. Raymond Barnett visited their brother, Jimmie Myers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Warders and children, Marion, Ind., visited his uncle, Conway Tedder and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Letcher, Lexington, and Mrs. Tommie Gillispie and children spent one day last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Letcher and family.

We talked with a relative J. R. Payne, Cincinnati, Ohio, last week. Mr. Payne said he still read and enjoyed the Carlisle Mercury, but he couldn't understand where I got all the Letcher's—I would be glad to have your visitors, and where you visit, if you would let me know.

The Methodist Men's Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Letcher Friday night. Their chairmen were chosen: Mrs. W. L. Marr, publicity; Mrs. Warner Lowe, citizenship; Mrs. Dorsey Watkins, reading; Mrs. Horace Bell, recreation.

Sawdust mulch good for gardens

Sawdust is a good mulch for home garden plots, the Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service says; the sawdust helps retain soil moisture and keeps weeds down.

In Virginia, four-year tests were run to prove the value of sawdust as a mulch on smaller garden plots. Here's what the researchers found.

Snap beans, yield increased 29.6 percent by sawdust mulch; lima beans, up 20.2 percent; cabbage, 12 percent; carrots, 35 percent; cucumbers, 321.2 percent; lettuce, 33.3 percent; peas, 9.3 percent; potatoes, 30.7 percent; sweet corn, 19.2 percent; and tomatoes, 62.4 percent.

The sawdust—mulched plots were compared to clean-cultivation plots.

Specialists recommend that a one-inch layer of sawdust be used around vegetables plants, shrubs or rose bushes. The sawdust is NOT poisonous to plants or the soil; and when turned under, adds valuable organic matter to the soil.

The USDA agricultural research center at Beltsville, Md., still wants identical twin calves of the beef type for nutrition and breeding studies. Wanted are purebred, grade or crossbreds, heifers or bulls, less than 5 months old, born after Dec. 1, 1957 and prior to June 1, 1958.

Dad's Day=June 15
Father KNOWS BEST

(ABOUT MOST THINGS)

Father's batting average on most things is pretty good. But it has been our observation that he is often more demanding of comfort for his family than for himself. A lot of fathers who should know better are struggling along with outdated and uncomfortable suits. FATHER'S DAY provides the perfect opportunity for the family to prove that occasionally they know what's best for Father by remembering him with the very special gift of a new summer suit.

A Peek at THE STARS

BY LYN CONNELLY

A GOOD many promising shows that were slated last fall have fallen by the wayside, casualties of too much production, too little production or too little imagination . . . One of those that was axed was the Gisele Mac Kenzie show . . . Here is a girl that is very versatile . . . She's one singer who could develop into a great comedienne and with Jack Benny as her mentor, she had a head jump in that field . . . Unfortunately for her, she was given the time slot following the one-hour Perry Como show and the half-hour Polly Bergen show, which is very similar to hers . . . Following Gisele was an adventure film, that "Hit Parade" . . . Why NBC placed such a heavy emphasis on music all in one period is a mystery.

The Guy Mitchell show was thrown out with a fair chance . . . Guy is another singer with lots of personality and voice and he was one of the better emcees but his rating wasn't very high due to the fact, probably, that ABC was busy writing publicity for Sinatra who is a great name and a great talent but just doesn't have it on TV . . . Here's hoping Guy gets another chance now that Sinatra has bowed out gracefully.

PLATTER CHATTER

CAPITOL: — The Andrew Sisters show they're still tops with their latest, "One Mistake" backed by the pretty "Melancholy Moon" . . . Those gals really defy the endurance records . . . What's more, after several decades of warbling they're still much better than new sister acts crowding the scene today . . . Nat King Cole does his usual good job with "Do I Like It" with "Looking Back" on the flip side.
