City council holds meet

The regular meeting of the city council was held Monday night, May 12, having been postponed from the first Monday of the month. Minutes of the April 7 meeting were read and approved.

Present were Mayor Bill Power, City Attorney Roger Womack, City Clerk W. J. Greene and Councilmen William G. Harper, H. C. Galbraith, Robert D. Coatney, Rector W. Smoot, Teddy Poe and William H. Frey.

Under discussion was 5 private sewer line from Main to Second street and upon a motion by Poe, seconded by Smoot the finance committee was instructed to determine the cost and report to council.

Galbraith-Smoot: 600 feet of 1½ inch hose for fire department will be purchased.

Galbraith-Harper: Donation $25 to Little League baseball.

Frey-Harper: Permission to Kelly Barnett to cross Walnut street with sewer line if road is replaced in prior condition.

Harper-Frey: Permission granted Charles M. Cox to run sewer line down alley, if need occurs.

Galbraith-Smoot: To purchase $15,000 fire insurance on city barn and equipment on temporary basis $10,000 on equipment, $5,000 on barn.

Councilman W. H. Frey was instructed to call in an insurance representative for the June meeting to explain a grouping plan whereby the city can secure better coverage at a lower cost.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"Is there a carrot-topped, big-nosed new daddy in here with beady little close-set eyes?"

THIRTEEN LOCATE FARM—

Last week's mystery farm was identified as the Carl Ishmael farm on the Ishmael Chapel road near Myers. In the foreground was pictured the Ishmael Methodist Church and at the right the unfinished barn of Charles Ishmael Jr. and Mrs. Carl Ishmael purchased the farm about five years ago. It was previously known as the George Clay farm. Three theatre pass winners were drawn from the 13 as follows Clarence Earlywine, Mrs. Ben Trussell and Stanley Alexander. Others correctly naming the farm were Mrs. Gene Gilvin, Mrs. Jack Alexander, Bobby Earlywine, Mrs. Dick Grimes, Jayce Price, Mrs. Stanley Alexander, Mrs. Yank Allison, Mrs. James Anderson, Miss Carrie Anderson, Tommy Vice. If the farm owner or operator will stop by the office we will present them with an enlarged mounted photograph of the farm pictured. A top attraction at the Lyric next week is "Saddle in the Wind."

was set at 75 cents on the $100 property valuation. Passed unanimously.

Smoot-Coatney: Building permits granted as follows: Eugene Clinkenbeard, concrete block, metal roof East Main. Joe Clay 8x16 ft. addition at 109 School avenue; Emory Hollar, erection of house; Rudy Filtman, repair work; William Harper, to replace gas tank under sidewalk at Harper's Garage.

Council also stressed the fact that firearms are not to be fired in the city limits without permission.

TO CELEBRATE FOURTH BIRTHDAY

The Midway Drive In Theatre will celebrate its fourth season Friday, May 16 by admitting everyone free to an all technicolor show.

Jones gets superior for tuba solo

Curtis Jones, Jr., a Freshman at Nicholas County high school was awarded a superior rating on his tuba solo at the State Music Festival in Lexington Friday.

Curtis was one of five entries in the state festival all of whom were ranked superior in the Regional Festival at Morehead recently.

Other results of the state festival are as follows: Excellent — Anneta Stephenson, flute; Sue Irvin, Saxophone; and the trumpet trio consisting of Dannie Curtis, Willa Faye Selvage and Charles Hardin. Good—Ramona Hollar, Clarinet.

The Nicholas County high school band under the direction of A. F. Chaky received a rating of excellent on Saturday.

Supplies of chickens until mid-June are expected to run 10 percent greater than last year, according to recent replacements and egg settings, says the USDA.

County tax roll shows $161,298 gain

The Nicholas County Board of Supervisors met last week to consider the 1958 assessment made by Tax Commissioner A. V. "Doc" Allison and the final assessment for Nicholas County has been placed at $10,943,092.00 an increase over 1957 of $161,298.00.

The Board was composed of James D. Patton, chairman, Frank C. Henry, Robert H. Crone, Eddie Roy Price and Earnie Earlywine. They were appointed by Judge Floyd Clark. The board praised the work of the Tax Commissioner and thanked Judge Clark and County Clerk J. Berry Burnaw for their co-operation.

City-County get Little League baseball sponsored; list donors

The boys of Carlisle-Nicholas County want to say "Thank You" to all who have shared in and are responsible for "Little League Baseball".

The Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, Farm Bureau and American Legion are sponsoring the teams, but extra money was needed for equipment and fixing the field so many of our places of business and others gave over and above what they gave through their clubs. These people deserve an extra "Thank You" for making possible clean, wholesome recreation for the boys of this County.

Below are names of all who have contributed and made Little League possible.

Truck driver fined $1,000

In Nicholas Circuit Court Monday, Howard Wiley, 42, of Newport, charged with voluntary manslaughter in the death of Bonnie Borland, 13, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Clifford Borland of Chillicothe, Ohio, was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter and the jury set his fine at $1,000.

The girl was fatally injured at 1 p.m. last July 9, near the entrance of Blue Lick State Park, on U. S. 68, while riding in a car driven by her uncle, Frank H. Lee, 42, also of Chillicothe. She was returning from a Girl Scout Camp in North Carolina. Two other girls in the car escaped injury.

The car was struck by Wiley's truck which also hit another car on the road, Sheriff J. Milton Fryman stated. All three vehicles were traveling north.

The driver of the second car, Harry Sims, 38, of West Union, Ohio, was not hurt. Others in his car, were taken to the Maysville hospital for treatment of minor injuries.

Bonnie was brought to the local hospital, and later was removed to a Lexington hospital by ambulance, but died en route.

Wiley is a vegetable produce dealer and truck driver.

NCHS grad get engineer scholarship

Robert M. Green, son of Mrs. Lillian Beckett and Mr. Irvine Green, was notified this week by Dr. R. E. Shaver Dean of the College of Engineering of the University of Kentucky, that he had been selected to receive one of the Kentucky Highway Engineering Scholarships. He was selected on the basis of the score he made (especially in mathematics and science) on a scholarship test given by the University.

Robert will be employed by the Highway Department during the summer and will enter the College of Engineering this Fall to study civil engineering.

While in high school Robert was a hard worker and as a result of his study he made outstanding records. For the past two years he has served as laboratory assistant to Mr. Teddy Poe, science teacher.
