Do you want your bookmobile?

Your County Bookmobile gives free book service to you and your children regularly, but perhaps you don't know how this service is arranged for you. Citizens of Kentucky gave the Bookmobile and the original donation of books ($3000 each). Your state government appropriates $45,000 each year for books, which are selected and processed in Frankfort by the Library Extension Division. Last year you received 104,000 new free books for your Bookmobile Program in this way. The state also appropriates $50,000 for certain state grants to help your program.

It is good for you and your children if your Bookmobile is kept running, but it is also important for your Bookmobile to be run well. It is a serious mistake to run a Bookmobile with too little money. An adequate salary for the Bookmobile Librarian must be provided. The Bookmobile needs repairs and new tires, and it must have NEW BOOKS, purchased with local funds if it is to have real worth for you and your children.

What can you do about it? You can talk to the County Judge and the Magistrates and let them know how important this service is to you. You can also write them. Talk over the need for support for Bookmobile service with your City Council and your Superintendent of Education.

We want to work for the minimum 3¢ on the 100 dollar valuation to have an adequate library program for our county. This service depends on you. You can keep it for your county, you can make it improve.—Contributed

Is the back door open?

History records that while the Christians were holding the city of Constantinople in the 15th century behind its massive hundred foot high wall, an army soldier discovered a back door in the wall, open and unguarded. While the Christians battled from the parapets, the Moslems slipped through the unguarded door and the city was taken.

The United States is perhaps as impregnable from outside attack as was Constantinople but it may also lie as vulnerable from within. While our country is spending billions of dollars for defenses to protect itself from freedom-destroying invaders, is it leaving a back door open?

A socialistic trend that has persisted in the U. S. in recent years continues to encroach on private citizens and industry. The affairs of the country fall more and more under the control of invading bureaucracy. Thus we are gradually breaching our defenses of individual opportunity and personal liberty.

Statistics show 152 unemployed here; citizens protest circus exhibiting

From the Canton Independent-Sentinel, Canton, Pa.: A group of leading business executives has launched a campaign to counteract what is called "recession fever." The businessmen believe that recession fever can grip those who have not been hurt financially and that fear of a recession can stop their purchases and make the recession much worse than it should be.

There is no question but that the future of our country, economically, is bright. We have an expanding population, an increasing number of families each year, and more jobs are averaged out over the long run. However, there is also no doubt that the present economy is suffering a recession, and there is no reason for anyone to hide that fact.

The recession should not induce those who are not hurt by it to curtail buying. On this count, the group of advertisers is performing a public service by urging people to continue their normal buying habits, or take advantage of bargains, and not be frightened into stopping their wallets closed.

We applaud the effort of the businessmen, both those connected with national concerns, and those locally, who are seeking to stimulate buying and lessen the effects of the recession. There is no necessity for the recession being any worse than it is, and a psychological factor is certainly involved in today's reduced buying.

From the South Pasadena Review, South Pasadena, Calif.: The United States is sponsoring an annual National Tax Freedom Holiday and is getting groups in other states to go along with it.

Annual Tax Freedom Day, explains the association, marks the day of the year when the average citizen has earned enough to pay his year's taxes and starts keeping his earnings. This year the date has been figured for May 13.

The idea sounds great. A reminder to citizens that they have to work four full months and nearly half way into the fifth month just to pay taxes.

But have the boys thought this thing really through? The tax collector, his attention called to the fact that the citizen keeps seven and a half months of his earnings all to himself, may think he is cheated with only $4.50 out of every $12 of a man's money!

Remember the old sayings, boys? When you've got your head in the lion's mouth, don't wiggle it. And sleeping tax collectors lie! Why tip 'em off?

Tom Poyne Says:

On Saturday May 10 Mr. and Mrs. Harmer Miller and baby of Cincinnati Ohio sent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fry- man at the country farm.

Tom Payne said a few days ago he was going out a path in the field and there was a large snake. I tried to kill it but was too large for me and I was a fread of it and it got away. Another day was out walking the same path in the same field and there was a large snake. I had a club in my hand and killed it. And it was 6 feet and 7 inches long. I think it was a Blue Racer.

Mr. and Mrs. Eker Harde of near Louisville Ky. spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fry- man at the country farm. Mrs. Floyd Dixon of Lexington was here to Scott Brize of near Pleasant Valley has got a farm and he has got a tree on his farm a growing sock and gloves so he says er and Thornton Pratt.

Professor Pratt ("Superintendent" to the present generation) was head of the school for two years. He was succeeded by Professor William F. Ramey, who held the position many years.

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

JUNIOR COLLEGES:

I know how many junior colleges are located in Kentucky? Well, the Congressional Record gives the score, 12 in all. They have 3600 students. California has 63 such schools, with 414,000.

All this is offered as information by Senator Clifford Case of New Jersey. He wants Uncle Sam to help foot the bill for such schools, contending that it is cheaper for students to attend junior colleg than go to the four-year variety.

PANAMA CANAL:

Each year, here in the Capital, Kentuckian Maurice Thatcher gathers together those folks who helped build the Panama Canal. Each year, too, the number grows slimmer. There are about 1000 left in the entire country. Of that number 100 turned up at the annual banquet.

Mr. Thatcher, who will only admit to being "over 80", is a former Louisville congressman. He was the first Governor of the Canal Zone and reports that at one time 50,000 Americans came to build the big ditch.

SENATE DOCUMENT:

They unveiled a bust of the late Vice-President Barkley in the Senate wing of the Capitol the other day, a story you have probably heard about.

Now the services marking the dedication of the bust is to be made into a Senate Document. It will include all the speeches and the nice things said about the 41st Vice-President of these United States. Motion to publish the document was made by Senator Carl Hayden of Arizona, a long-time friend of the Kyne.

A POEM:

Just to vary the fare offered you in this column of prose, to quote a poem of interest to Kentuckians who have to battle with moles.

The curfew tolled the knell of parting day.

The line of cars moved slowly over the hill

And left the world most unexpectedly.

They unveiled a bust of the absent-minded way.

The verse is appropriate, we believe, for the holiday week ahead.

Timely reminders for gardeners

Prof. N. R. Elliott, UK Extension horticulturist, offers those timely reminders for home gardeners:

NEW SODDED AREAS should not be cut with a lawn mower until early fall if the grass is to establish a good root system. Mowing sod the first season may kill it. Mr. Elliott warned. If the grass goes to seed, cut it with a sickle, then in September use the mower to trim it up before winter.

PRUNING FLOWERING SHRUBS correctly may make the difference between having attractive shrubs for several years and having to replace them frequently at considerable cost. A flowering shrub should never be rounded-up or 'bobbed' thus destroying the lower buds for next spring and its natural shape.

Immediately after a shrub finishes blooming thin out about one-fourth of the old canes cutting them to within 2 inches of the crown. It is then a simple matter to work out the old canes through the top of the plant. This plan should be repeated every spring.

FORSYTHIAS or other shrubs that failed to bloom are suffering from want of food in the majority of cases said Mr. Elliott. He recommends spreading from 10 to 11 pounds of complete fertilizer around each plant such as 6-8-6, 8-8-8, 10-10-10, or 12-12-12. Treated now, a liberal amount of bloom is almost assured another season, provided the flower buds are not blasted off in cariless pruning.

PHLOXES TO CONTROL THOF, diseases and insects in the flower garden. Insects multiply very rapidly, and are earliest to control when they first appear. Use a full satisfactory dust that will control both diseases and insects on flowers and roses on the market. If a spray is preferred select one that contains malathion, a good control against chewing insects.

CUT OFF DEAD BLOOM STALKS of all plants and keep them before seed forms. In the case of irises, it means the prevention of seed formation after crossing of colors has taken place.

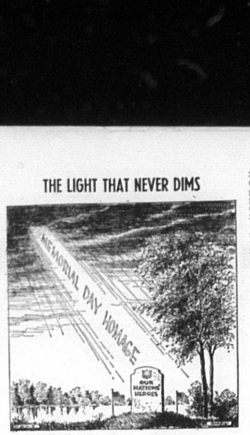
THE LIGHT THAT NEVER DIMS



A Little Yappin'

by Nellie Crump

Makers of Men.

More than half a century ago a little teenage girl graduated with honors from the Carlisle high school. Possessing the desired qualities to make a good teacher, she was offered a position by the school the following September, a place she has held continuously for these 51 years. She is the enviable record of Miss Mary Frances Fisher, who has resigned from the position to care for her invalid mother. Besides teaching, she has been organist at the Christian church since a mere child and helped rear a family of younger brothers and a little sister. She has truly been "the butcher, the baker and the candle-stick maker" to this entire community

The Silent Telephone.

To me the past week has been sad. Within three days two of my very dearest friends were laid to rest—Mrs. Eliza Purcell of Paris and Mrs. Ollie Finch of Carlisle. Possibly they never met, but both have been so closely connected with me for more than a quarter of a century. We've stuck together through fair weather and foul. Only a few years difference in age, yet both have been like a mother to me since the loss of my own precious loved ones. The letters from Paris ceased some time ago, due to prolonged illness, and the regular Sunday afternoon phone calls will be no more. Yet, I shall miss them both, but the Memory of their true friendship will be treasured always.

In God's Care.

A near tragedy happened on McCracken street late Sunday afternoon. A little girl was painfully injured and lost a lot of blood which necessitated its transfusion in the hospital, when the brakes of a parked car were released by small boys and it rolled several feet down grade into a group of children playing and "taking turns" on a small bicycle. All ran for their lives, but Lottie and her baby sister were unable to get out of the way. Lottie was thrown several feet, receiving a cut foot, which required several stitches and a bad snake bite on son. Little Nancy crawled from beneath the car without a scratch. No other children were injured.

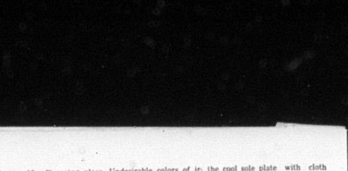
Memories of '93.

It seems so long since 1893, but the thrill and excitement is just as fresh in the memories end of three old schoolmates today as it was that evening in May 65 years ago. Down through the years many, many young men and women have gone out into the world as graduates of the Carlisle city school but none as happy and gay as that class of nine members, for it was the first Commencement to be held by the school.

The school had opened in September 1891 with Professor D. P. Pratt in charge. There were no graduates the first year (1892) but in 1893 nine had completed the course of instruction and were ready for their diplomas. Of the members of three are now living. They are: Mrs. Macie Collins Linville and Mrs. Bertie Dallas Mathers, both of Carlisle, and Mrs. Fannie Rice Clark of Paris.

The six deceased members are Cordelia Hall Ruddell, Nan Tribble Neal Gleen, Ada Gustin, Laura McIlvain, Clifton H. Fish-



THURSDAY, MAY 29
Read Acts 6:1-8

These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also. (Acts 17:6.)

Sometimes we see "Do Not Disturb" signs on doors to rooms in hotels or hospitals. These signs seem to hang also on the doors of some churches and minds.

We have come a long way since Pentecost, but some of our distance may have been in the wrong direction. Our own comfort, our consciences, our conduct have been dictated more often by respectability than disturbed by the implications of the gospel. Because we have been soothed by the world our response to it does not disturb others—nor transform the world to which we have been conformed.

The early Christians gave themselves up to the power of the Holy Spirit. As a result, they had a disturbing effect on others, who wondered and were amazed. Early Christians had the reputation of turning the world upside down. Because the Holy Spirit prompted them to good works, their jail sentences became titles of honor.

PRAYER: Our Father, when our lives are filled with self, the seeds of unhappiness are sown in us. Empty us of self that we may be filled with the Holy Spirit. Produce in us such fruit as love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. In Christ's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

As a Christian, what will be my influence today upon persons about me?
