Aged citizen passes Sunday

Mrs. Alice Remington Fisher, 90, widow of Dr J. W. Fisher, a former Carlisle dentist passed quietly away in her sleep at 4 a.m. Sunday morning, September 7, at her home on Archdeacon Avenue, following a lingering illness.

She was a daughter of the late B. F. and Mary Elizabeth Bouster Remington, born in Covington, but moved to Paris with her parents when quite young. She joined the Paris Christian Church in 1880, moving her membership to the church here, after she was married to Dr. Fisher in 1890. She was active in all organizations of the church, and is reported the last member of the old C. W. B. M. of the church.

Survivors are two daughters, Miss Mary Frances Fisher, with whom she lived, and Mrs. C. B. Pumphrey, Lexington, three sons, Julian B., Fisher, Los Angeles, Calif., William R. Fisher, Colonia, N. J. and Robert T. Fisher, Carlisle business man, four grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, at the Christian Church with Rev. Lattie E. Kineman, officiating. Burial was in the family lot in the Carlisle cemetery. Pallbearers were Warren R. Fisher Jr., Billy Gilley Jr., Luther Thompson, B. J. Alexander, Stanley Caswell and Olney Gifford.

21 st annual Nicholas County fair is scheduled Sept. 25, 26, 27

The 21st annual Nicholas County Fair will be held at the Carlisle Armory September 25, 26, and 27, Emmett Darrell, president has announced.

The Pony Show held last year for the first time has been re-scheduled this year and will be held on Friday afternoon. A new feature will be a Tractor Pulling Contest to be held on Mattox's Lot on Friday night. The Dairy Show, featuring FFA, 4-H Club and Adult Divisions will be staged on Saturday morning. A Square Dance on Saturday night following the Fair will be a new feature, sponsored by the Nicholas County Utopia Club.

Through the courtesy of the Nicholas County Health Department, a Baby Show has been arranged as a brand new event and will be held Saturday afternoon. The Pet Show which has been held for several years has been scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

The general premium list will be very similar to that of last year for the general exhibits to be housed in the Armory. This includes such items as the Flower Show, 4-H Home Economics, FHA Home Economics, Garden Crops, Tobacco, FFA Exhibits, the General School Exhibit, and the Industrial Art Exhibit.

The Fair catalog is in the hands of the Printer and will be available by September 15. Catalogs will be distributed through the schools. Any one wishing a copy of the Fair Catalog, who does not have a child in school, may get one through the County Extension Office, Mr. Darrell said. Everyone is cordially invited to participate in the 1958 Nicholas County Fair, which is endeavoring to expand to provide an exhibit that justifies the quality of product produced in Good Ole Nicholas County.
