National newspaper week

This country has something of a mania for "weeks" and "days" celebrating all manner of things and occasions from the sublime to the ridiculous. But some of the observances are far above the common ruck, and deserve the public's interest and attention.

This is certainly the case with National Newspaper Week, October 1-8. Its theme is "Your Newspaper Guards Your Freedoms." And that's more than just a felicitous little slogan. It's a fact. A free press is the most potent weapon against tyranny and persecution that any nation can possess.

Dictators always take over the press as soon as they gain power and pervert it to their own ends. That's only logical. For dictatorship can't stand the freedom of expression and debate a free press stands solidly for.

"Your money"

The Portland Oregonian prints a letter from a reader which offers an interesting suggestion. He proposes that we stop the "silly practice" of referring the financing of projects with "government money" or "Federal funds" as though it was manna from heaven."

Instead, he thinks, we should start calling such financing by its right name—that is "your money," or "taxpayers' funds."

There is a world of merit in this idea. A great many people, apparently, don't relate the "Federal funds" or "government money" to the state of their own pocketbooks. They don't realize that every cent must be paid one way or another by the taxpayers of today and of generations to come. And that term "taxpayers" includes everyone in the country. Even people in so low an income bracket that they pay no direct taxes, must pay hidden taxes every time they buy an article or a service.

The widespread use of such a term as "your money" would be a tremendous help in correcting this sad situation. We'd think twice if we really understood that we must pay a part of the cost of everything government does—whereas now we only think once or don't think at all.

At any rate, keep it in mind next time you read about government spending. It's "your money"—billions upon billions upon billions of it, collected in taxes.

R.E.A. project gets $200,000 youth knocked down by car dies

Thursday, September 15, 1938

Nicholas County allotted $200,000 by R.E.A. for local project.

Fire of undetermined origin last week destroyed a barn belonging to Ed Parsons, of the Stony Creek section, with a loss of 10 tons of hay, 20 bushels of wheat and some farming tools and implements. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

Fourteen Nicholas Countians last week qualified in Nicholas county court as deputy county court clerks to take acknowledgements of various persons to the rights of way easements for the Nicholas County Rural Electrification Cooperative Association.

Seventy-five delegates from 10 Christian churches of Nicholas County attended the annual one-day meeting of the Nicholas County Christian Association held at Moorefield Tuesday.

Mrs. B. J. Alexander is confined to her home on Sycamore street with a sprained ankle.

A new coat of gray paint last week was given the field gun house on the lawn of the court house.

An unconnected hail storm struck Carlisle last week, but did little damage, as most tobacco had been housed.

MARRIED — Miss Pauline Bishop of Nicholas County and Sterling Mattox of Newport.—Miss Pauline Caves of Senora, and James A. Boaz of Carlisle at Louisville September 13.

DIED—Mrs. Rosetta, Booth, 75, at her home near East Union.—Walter Darosett, 71, Bath county, Tuesday.—Bobby Gene Relmsnith, 10-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Reinsmith of near East Union, Sept. 8th.—Thomas Quietl, native of Nicholas County, Tuesday night at Middletown, Ohio.—Mrs. Mary Blanche (Gore) Blount, 47, of Moorefield last Friday at her home.

Thursday, September 12, 1918

Carlisle acts to stop passage through city of trucks that cause considerable emission of nauseout gases.

Farmers warned not to sow wheat that has any smut contamination.

Voters warned to go to their voting precincts and register.

Clay Williams, 12, died of injuries received when knocked down by an automobile.

Harold Brooks, Carlisle, reported resting easily at his home after an accident in a factory at Middletown, Ohio.

Kentucky M. E. Conference closes meeting at Cynthiana. Gov. A. O. Stanley nominated to fill place on ticket left by death of Senator Ollie James.

MARRIED — Mrs. Mamie Tucker and Royse Ball, both of Blue Licks at the home of the Mr. E. S. Hollon.

A Little Yappin'

by Nellie Crump

May have nine lives.

Last week's Mercury told about Andrew Grey receiving three broken ribs and a fractured collarbone when a tier rail broke while he and his brother, Leon Grey (who has been killing snakes), were housing tobacco. On another page it told of how Andy fell from a barn while housing tobacco 20 years ago. That time it was a wrist fracture and badly bruised side. He may have nine lives but he is getting nearer the neckline each time. Twenty years makes a big difference in the life of any cat—house, pole or Tom.

Mamma's little man.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clem of Clintonville, who were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harper, came down the street, are parents of two boys and a girl—one, two and three years old. Bobby, oldest of the trio, celebrated his third birthday a few weeks ago by tipping the scales at 73 pounds (jay bird style).

They went that-a-way.

While doing some roofing at the home of Oscar Shrout on Morgan street last week, workmen were confronted by a swarm of bees—little, big, young and old — and their cache of several pounds of honey. Saw Oscar a few days later, but haven't found out what became of workmen, bees or honey.

Stinker Club Meets.

Am at a loss to know my rating—whether a guest or charter member of the Stinkers Club at a picnic supper Friday night at the home of Miss Hailey Griffin, founder of the club. It was a wonderful little affair and the best potluck feast one ever tasted for over 20 neighbors and friends. Girls are never as bad as they sound at first, and one "stinker" is another as he took another helping of fried chicken and about half a dozen more sandwiches.

Broken hip for 90-year-old.

Mrs. John Howard was called to a Lexington hospital Saturday by the illness of her 90-year-old mother who suffered a broken hip in a fall at her home in Mt. Sterling.

This is a fast era.

Mrs. J. I. Detsel (Christine Harney) of California, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Garvin (Amelia Dinsmore) and children of Florida and Mr. and Mrs. "Dick" Dinsmore of New York have concluded a visit with their mother, Mrs. Lucy Dinsmore, on Dorney avenue. This was Mrs. Detsel's first visit home in 19 years. She made the round trip from California by plane. Leaving Lexington the Friday afternoon, she arrived home about 9 a.m. Saturday. In a ten-minute telephone message to her mother Sunday morning she told of finding her husband ill upon her return home. He had been in a hospital since Wednesday suffering from a kidney infection, but had not notified her before he called home until the visit she had planned was over.

Practice makes perfect.

It does not take a shiny, nickel-plated baton to do a lot of fancy twirling—if I know the least thing about the "sport." I saw a neat little job by Sue Berry with an old yellow broom at her home across the street a few days ago. Practice makes perfect!

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

THATCHER HIGHWAY:

Those who have visited the Panama Canal Zone may remember traveling over the Thatcher Highway. It was named for a former Kentucky congressman, Maurice Thatcher of Louisville, who now practices law in the capitol.

Thatcher was Governor of the Canal Zone and gets the credit for its early progress. Reports coming from that Latin-American land indicate that his administration—way back in 1910—is well remembered. In addition to the highway the Panamanians have named a ferry route, a park, and a street in his honor.

FOREIGN AID:

Someone with a slide rule and flair for figures has come up with some data on Kentucky's contribution to the foreign aid program since the close of World War Two.

Blue Grass taxpayers, we are informed, have contributed $16 million dollars to help those abroad. That represents about 2 percent of Uncle Sam's total donations. New York and California contribute more than 10 percent each.

FEDERAL AID:

Congressmen have gone home but the question of federal aid to education is still being kicked around.

FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS

Should Teenagers Be Allowed to Date?

Life is never a simple bed of roses. Always there must be theories—theories that are the problems to be met and dealt with by every age group at one time or another.

What an average boy or girl enters the teenage set, a most frequent problem [and, to the teenager, a problem of most serious nature] is the attitude of their parents toward "dating."

Quite often, the thing that brings trouble is the misguided parent who thinks that the longer he or she can keep their teenager from dating, the better things are for all concerned.

It has been normal since the beginning of time for young people to grow to the age where they enjoy being with young people of the opposite sex. In the middle teens parties and social gatherings represent valuable training grounds where both boys and girls learn to overcome their fears and shyness; they learn how to meet people and how to conduct themselves like young ladies and young gentlemen. This is something that does not come to a teenager when a certain age, say 16, 17 or 18 is reached.

The author remembers a wise psychology teacher who made this observation: "Many parents fail because they keep their young locked in a bureau drawer until they're 18, then turn them out and say 'There, I think you are old enough to take care of yourself now!'"

Having dates is so much a part of growing up for the average teenager as going to school. Teenagers can learn about the world from books—they must learn about people from people.

There isn't much room to grow in a bureau drawer, but by the same token, a teenager can grow up too fast with no supervision at all. Parents who faithfully meet their responsibility stand somewhere on middle ground, with guidance, instruction and proper exercise of authority. It's more "bother" than saying "you can't date until you get to be 18" (or some other age)—something which all too many parents seem to do. But, its usually worth the effort.

If you have a teenage problem you'd like to discuss, write to Mrs. Dale Drake, address your letter in care of ABOUT TEENAGERS, NATIONAL PUBLISHING ENTERPRISES, FRANKFORT, KY.

THE LAST ROUND UP

Bald Hill

by Mrs. Elmer Ritchie

As our County boys and girls start back to school we are reminded again that play time is over and work time is here.

Mr. Walter Flora and daughters, Martha, Janice and Brenda returned home last week from a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Humphries of Cleveland, while they were in attendance of Mrs. Horace Bell. We meet next month with Mrs. Mason Bryant.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Herndon, Covington, visited her parents Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dotson.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosco Morris and children spent Sunday with Herbert Morris and family.

Leo Brumagen continues to improve from a recent fall out of the barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Green, Carlisle, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Grace Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamer Miller kept the home in order for them.
