Today's Meditation

THURSDAY, APRIL 16
Read—Acts 2:34-42
You shall receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:38)
One day I was walking across the famous Boston Common. I was somewhat surprised to see a building with this sign—Holy Ghost Chapel—Air Conditioned—For Rent.
The temporary chapel had been abandoned for a more magnificent one elsewhere. Nevertheless, the abandoned chapel was in a vivid expression of the attitude of our generation toward the doctrine and what is more important—the experience of the Holy Spirit.

there's nothing MYSTERIOUS about RECC
It's just a matter of common sense. For years road people wanted for electricity. But it didn't come. So the farmers searched for it for themselves through Rural Electric Co-ops. And today more than 95% of our farms get electric service. This has meant an unbelievable increase in production and quality of farm products... has given the farmer increased buying power which will do him... and has helped build both solid industries and areas where it never existed previously.
