LETTER OF THANKS

We take this method to extend our heartfelt thanks for all the kindnesses bestowed upon us during the illness and death of our father, H. T. Griffin. We thank everyone who tried to make our sorrow easier for us — the flowers, food, cards, visits, words of sympathy and those who called at the funeral home. We also extend our sincere appreciation to Dr. Kingsolver, Dr. Morford, the nurses at hospital, Rev. Bierley, to those who sang and to Mathers-Shearer. All of your kind words and deeds will forever remain a pleasant memory to all of us. May God bless each and everyone is our prayer. The Griffin Family. 4-16-1tcg

Ben Pumphrey named Paris grid coach

Ben H. Pumphrey, a teacher and assistant coach at the Millersburg Military Institute, has been named head football coach at Paris high school.

Pumphrey was selected as the new coach April 14 by the city board of education to replace Eddie Bass, who resigned some weeks ago to accept the football coaching position at Georgetown.

Pumphrey is a commerce major, with his minor work in mathematics. So, in addition to his coaching duties at Paris High, he will also teach a full schedule in one of his fields.

Married to the former Viola Ballard of Carlisle, the couple have two children, Ben III, 8, and Laura Nell, 3. They are members of the Christian Church.

The newly elected coach has been teaching and coaching at MMI for the past six years. Previous to that time he was in business in Carlisle and was in charge of junior high school football here.

At MMI his chief responsibilities in athletics has been in coaching the junior high football team, which had an over all season record for 1958 of seven wins and one tie. His junior high team won the Junior High School Central Kentucky Conference Championship for 1958 with five wins and one tie in conference play.

During the eight years he has been affiliated with junior high football he has had an overall record of 39 wins, 11 losses and two ties.

He plans to move to Paris with his family this summer.

Lt. Governor Harry Lee Waterfield was in Carlisle Wednesday in the interest of his candidacy for governor.

Blue Licks team wins first game

The Blue Licks baseball team, a member of the Kentucky Valley League composed of eleven teams, played their first game April 19, winning from Milford, Kentucky 6 to 3.

Bobby Leet was the starting pitcher, pitching five and one third innings. He was relieved by Pete Gray who was the winning pitcher. Highlight of the game was a triple play made in the sixth inning by the Blue Licks team. Woody, Wavel and Tom Pryman got two hits each.

Next game at Blue Licks with Brooksville, Sunday, April 26.

Clay Mann, manager of the Blue Licks team, wishes to express his thanks and those of each player for the support given their ball club. The donations made by the people of Nicholas County made it possible to purchase uniforms and equipment.

The schedule for the season is as follows:

April 26 Brooksville at Blue Licks

Adult class meets tonight

The last in a series of six lessons on "Shortcuts to Meal Preparation" will be held on Thursday night, April 23, at 7:30 (CDT) at Nicholas County high school. The topic will be Meals from the Freezer.

Miss Sue Chandler and Miss Barbara Arnold, student teachers in home economics, will teach the class.

Man found dead by two neighbors

Leslie L. Henson, 84, was found dead at his home in the eastern suburbs of Carlisle at 8 a.m. Tuesday by two neighbors, Arthur Breitz and Cleve Dampier.

Coroner Ralph Shearer said Henson apparently died about 6:30 a.m. Tuesday of a heart attack.

Henson was a life-long resident of Nicholas County, a retired farmer and member of the Moorefield Methodist Church. He was a son of the late George and Rachel Linville Henson. His wife was the late Mrs. Eva Vice Henson.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Minnie Straw and Mrs. Claude Darrell, both of Nicholas County, and three sons, Joe Henson, Lexington; James Henson, Ewing, and Sam Henson of Feesburg, Ohio; one half brother, Corbett Clark, Frankfort; one half sister, Mrs. Grace Woolens, Versailles; 19 grandchildren, and several great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. (CDT) Thursday, at Mathers-Shearer chapel, with Rev. W. R. Raborn, officiating and burial will be in the Bethel cemetery.

Six grandsons will serve as pallbearers. The body is at the chapel.

Easter Seal campaign nets $319.42

The 1959 Easter Seal campaign in Nicholas County has raised $319.42 as of April 20. Late contributions could boost this amount to meet the total reached last year.

Contributions may still be sent to Mrs. Harold R. Letton, Carlisle Route 2.

Without the support of people in counties all over Kentucky, the Society's statewide program of help for physically handicapped children would not be possible.

It is gratifying that many Nicholas County residents have responded generously in helping to meet the various needs of these handicapped children.

LODGE MEET CALLED

There will be a called meeting of Dougherty Lodge Friday night 7:30. Work in the first degree.

STATE MEMBERSHIP was received by the Nicholas Young Farmers organization at a recent meeting. Wayne Capes, treasurer of the state organization presented the Nicholas County unit with their charter. Receiving the charter is Herbert C. Duncan, president of the local group. The Nicholas County Young Farmer group was one of three to be awarded a charter membership in the northern district which is composed of 19 Vo-agri departments. Those present when the picture was taken are from left, front row, Capes, Duncan, Foster Pumphrey, vocational-agriculture teacher and advisor for the group. Second row, Fred Whaley, G. L. Curtsinger, Shelly Gaunce, William Bingham, supervisor of northern district. Back row, Emmett Darrell, Charles Watkins, Billy Terrell, Jimmie Earlywine and Tummie Livingood. The state organization for young farmers was organized in August 1958 at the Kentucky Leadership Training Center. This group of farmers along with their advisor are proud to have a charter member of such an organization.
