N.C.H.S. seniors visit Washington

by Charles Kaye Barton
Monday afternoon about 20 twenty-five Nicholas County high school seniors and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walker, left for Washington, D.C. and on their way to New York City.
Commodore Arlet of the board, the train, the George Washington, in Lexington were being served supper in the dining car after we returned to our car and found about thirty Clark County seniors had joined us.
It seemed like no time at all until we had left Kentucky and were well on our way. Even though we had changed our clothes and got as comfortable as possible, we just couldn't seem to go to sleep.
At 5:00 a.m. everybody was up and changing clothes and rushing around the maid.
Mr. Raymond Allison gave a landscape report.
Following lunch, Mr. Sam Wallace, from the Harrison R.C.C. assisted by Mrs. Betsey Robinson gave the lesson on "Electric Wires."
Recitation, led by Mrs. Sheli W. Gausman, was enjoyed by all.
The May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Cabin White at Headquarters.

K.E.A.'s over and everyone back to the grid again. There's not too much activity at C.H.S. this week but I'll bet you want there to be more. Last Wednesday, the band made some donations and more gifts will also enter the contest. Those who bought tickets really enjoyed them. I'm sure. Presently the band never wants to see anything more than a contest again. We made about 90 dollars which really isn't very much because most instruments cost over a hundred dollars. The Jrs. came to school with their bands Monday and a daughter of Louisville who were wearing guests of her mother, Mrs. Ross Hamm.
Saltwell
The Jr. play will be presented on Friday night, beginning at 8:00 P.M. in the auditorium. This play is really cute and if you don't "rip up and out" of it, believe me, it isn't something to miss.
Wednesday was a most interesting activity period. Mrs. Grace Earlwine on Tuesday. Those playing solos were Charles Vye, Kelley King, Martha Anderson, Sally Davis, and a new Flycatcher. Quite a large crowd attended the funeral of Mrs. Norman

HARRY LEE WATERFIELD
The ONLY Experienced Candidate, Too!

"A farmer, himself, Harry Lee has given Kentucky farmers a strong, clear voice and leadership in Freshfruit on many important farm matters in his 12 years in the State Legislature and his present term as Lieutenant Governor. His opponent, Bert Condit, is not a farmer and has no experience in the legislative or executive sides of the government."
