N.C.H.S SENIORS VISIT NEW YORK

by Charlye Kaye Barton

Around 10:00 p.m. Tuesday, we arrived at the Pennsylvania station in New York. We were met by a bus, which took us to the Taft Hotel where we were immediately assigned to rooms. Everyone made a mad dash for the bath tub to refresh. After that we started a search for the rest of our group. We finally located everyone but then it was time to go to bed.

The next morning we met in the lobby to go to eat breakfast at the Garden Cafeteria. We ate all our meals there each day.

QUICK-CHANGE ARTIST . . . Jacqueline Bauer, Parisian model, rests a minute between dress showings. She can show 36 dresses in 2½ hours.

From Madison Square Garden. At 9:00 we left on a guided tour. We visited such places as St. John the Divine Episcopal Church, the largest Gothic Architecture church in the world. We drove down Broadway, past Central Park and 5th Ave., and saw mansions of a decade ago. After eating lunch, we resumed our tour by going to the top of the Empire State Building. On the way up, everyone held their ears. When we got on top, cars looked like match boxes and people like ants. There was a real nice snack bar and souvernir shop right there on top of the city. The weather was beautiful and the view was almost unlimited. That evening was free. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley saw a play about Abraham Lincoln starring "Paladin" of T.V. fame. Most of the kids watched television or slept.

Thursday morning right after breakfast, the girls, Mrs. Wesley and R. S. and Charles set out for Macy's, Gimbel's and Sak's. We rode the subway to Macy's. In case you didn't know it Macy's is the largest department store in the world. and they have every thing imaginable. Gimbel's and Sak's were in the same block but Macy's is the largest.

At 1:30 we boarded a Circle Line Yacht for a three hour tour around Manhattan. We enjoyed the beautiful weather especially on the boat. All the boys were interested in Yankee Stadium and all the girls were interested in the Army base. We also passed the United Nations building where we had visited the day before. Each room in the U. N. building was decorated by a different country and each room has a separate heating system, allowing each delegate to regulate the heat according to his nature.

Thursday night at Radio City we saw the movie Green Mansion and afterwards we saw the famed Rockettes. They presented their Easter Pageant and it was certainly beautiful. Since this was our last night in New York, we tried to make the best of it.

Friday at 12:00 noon we bid farewell to New York and headed for the Blue Grass of Kentucky. We arrived in Carlisle Saturday morning at 11:00 and were greeted by several parents. It was a wonderful trip and I'm sure everyone enjoyed it, especially Mr. and Mrs. Wesley.

Inside the walls of C.H.S.

by Harriet Clark

Hello again, folks:

I know this seems rather odd to say but the Juniors couldn't wait for Monday. Usually we say that about Friday but this was a special Monday. Their class rings arrived. I guess every class' rings can't be topped but I'll have to admit, the Jrs. picked a very pretty ring. Next time you see one of them, stop and look at it. I think you'll agree.

The Seniors received their invitations Monday.

Tuesday night the Srs. presented their play, "Too Young, Too Old." I thought it was a very cute play. We hope you enjoyed it as much as we did.

As most of you know by now, the band made a Superior at the State Contest at Morehead. Soloists rating superior were: Mary Glenn Feeback, Kelley Kinnett and Harriet Clark. Nancy Fightmaster and Velva Wells rated excellent which was the highest rating given in flute solos. Charles Vice and Sally Dayton also rated excellent. The results of the brass sextet and the clarinet quartet are unknown.

Next Monday night is Ice Cream night. All of you come to the school and if the weather permits, you'll eat ice cream and cake under the stars while listening to that heavenly C.H.S. band. Now, doesn't that sound romantic? It's all just 50c. Usually just a band concert costs that much. Don't forget Monday night at the school, beginning at 5:30. See you then.

Wednesday, the Jrs. & Srs. leave for New York. We finally got paid off for all the work we've done this year. Sunday, we'll try to make it back to Carlisle. With us back, and we'll see you later, alligator.

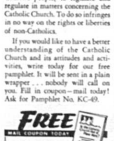
Is The Catholic Church Out of Place in America?



Some critics say "yes" and assert as one of their reasons that the Church is not democratic.

They say it is undemocratic, for example, for the Church to oppose birth control and divorce with remarriage. It is undemocratic for Catholics to maintain their own schools . . . to campaign against obscene literature, books and films . . . to promulgate a distinctive Catholic culture.

What, we ask, could be more undemocratic than to deny Catholics the right to do these very things if they choose?

Christ's Church was not intended, of course, to be Canadian, or British, French or German. It was to be catholic, not national—at home everywhere, alien nowhere. Nor was Christ's Church designed to be democratic. It was established on a hierarchical system, with authority vested in the Apostles—and in the Congregation. That is the nature and design of the Catholic Church.

To assert that the Catholic church is undemocratic implies that it is anti-democratic and antagonistic to a "democratic" political and social system. Nothing could be further from the truth. No other dedication to democratic principles could be made than that voiced by the Catholic Bishops of the United States at their Third Plenary Council, in Baltimore, in 1884. The present Pope, Pius XII, supplementing similar comments by earlier Popes, declared in 1944 that the member of a true democracy is "a citizen of honor, of personal activity and of dignity."

In 1776—just 200 years before America's Declaration of Independence—Robert Cardinal Bellarmine, famed member of the Catholic Hierarchy—wrote that "all men are equal" . . . "that political right is from God" . . . "that man must be governed by someone" . . . that government "must depend on the consent of the multitude" . . . and that "for legitimate reasons the people can change the government."

In a genuine democracy, it must be recognized as the right of the Catholic Hierarchy to expound Catholic doctrine, to instruct the Catholic people, to legislate and regulate in matters concerning the Catholic Church. To do so infringes in no way on the rights or liberties of non-Catholics.

If you would like to have a better understanding of the Catholic Church and its attitudes and activities, write today for our free pamphlet. It will be sent in a plain wrapper . . . nobody will call on you. Fill in coupon—mail today! Ask for Pamphlet No. KC-49.
